NORTH ADAMS—Dick Jeffer's interest in the theater is not only leading him to New York City but to the altar as well. Dick, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffers of Hylane drive, and Barbara Schnake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Schnake of Chicago, Ill. and Diabolo Heights, Canal Zone, Panama, who announced their engagement last week, met when they were co-actors in a play in Panama last year.

The trip to New York City is the result of a contest in Panama. The "combo" at Fort Clayton competed with other camps in the Panama Canal Zone and Puerto Rico and Richard Jeffers' group won. As a result, the boys have been outfitted and will be flown to New York City to appear on the All Army Show that Ed Sullivan is producing on his program on June 7. The winners of this performance are given a seven month's tour of the States. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffers are planning a trip to the big city for Dick will have a ten day leave while he is in New York City.

A brand new grand-daughter was the occasion of the ten day visit Mrs. Wellington A. Besser made in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Knowles announce the birth of a daughter, Julie, on April 23. Mrs. Knowles is the former Margery Besser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington A. Besser of Longmeadow road, Bloomfield township.

Combining business and pleasure, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Girardot spent six months in Florida and California and have just returned to their home on Manor road. The couple left last November and of Beach road have returned from a three weeks' vacation at Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. The weather all during their trip was beautiful and they came home to see their cold, rainy days to wish they could turn right around and fly back to Florida and not even take the time to drive.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy W. Dahlberg will entertain at supper in their home on Brookdale road following the last concert of the year of the Cranbrook Music Guild. The concert will be held May 23 in the Cranbrook School auditorium when Ava Comin Case and Mary Stuart Flahbourne of the University of Michigan School of Music will be presented at the piano. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dahlberg will be the members of the board of the Cranbrook Music Guild and their husbands and wives.

An approach to the intersection at Adams and East Long Lake roads and looks up carefully, he will see nestled in among its trees and shrubs on the northwest corner, a charming yellow house that reminds one of the poetry of Alfred Noyes. This is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Clark and was the setting last week of one of the steps in the "Garden Pilgrimage". Tea was served on Sunday afternoon and Mrs. Irving Duffy of Manor road presided at the tea table.

On May 22 the annual Pot Parade and street fair put on by St. James Episcopal Church will be held at Chester and Martin streets. Anyone who chances by, will find a callopie, pony rides, fish ponds, apron booths, a treasure chest, baked goods, and much more with all sorts of interesting things.

Mrs. W. L. Bones of North Adams road is general chairman for the day. Mrs. James Patterson is co-chairman and committee members are Mrs. Ralph Hunt, Mrs. Pell Hollingshead, Mrs. T. P. Russell, Mrs. J. E. Williams, Mrs. John Schmidt, Mrs. James Abbott, Mrs. J. M. Ross, Mrs. A. P. Stalter, Mrs. Thomas Draper and Wilbur Sears.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and

Mrs. James M. Smith of Beach road entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. C. Pulver of Pontiac at dinner at the Detroit Club and the theater. The four saw "Guys and Dolls."

Sunday, no "starting gun" will be heard, but the opening gun of the Orchard Lake Country Club sailors will be a breakfast and "champagne" at noon at the clubhouse. All the sailors, aspiring sailors, crew members and others just interested in the sport will be there to look over the new fleet of Class Y boats that the club has purchased and to take turns trying them out.

Benjamin Brewster of Brookdale road who is chairman of the water front, announces that the first official race will take place Saturday, May 29.

Garden Club Tea

Members of the Suburban Garden club entertained mothers and friends Tuesday afternoon at a tea given in the home of Mrs. Robert VanderPyl, 384 Lakeside. About 54 were present.
