

Mrs. Manert Kennedy Will Be Summer Guest

By ELIZABETH B. SMITH
Staff Correspondent
MI 4-2723

NORTH ADAMS—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Kennedy of Hy-lane drive drove to Indianapolis last weekend to visit their son, Manert, and his family. On the way they picked up their daughter Joan, a student at Michigan State College. In Indianapolis the two men were able to take in the trials for the Memorial Day 500 mile race.

When they returned they brought the junior Mrs. Kennedy and her baby home with them for the summer. Manert Kennedy, who is a student at Butler University, will rejoin his family in Birmingham as soon as school is out.

Miss Ann Richards of Westfield, Mass., was the guest last week of Mrs. James E. Bullock of Bloom-crest drive in Bloomfield township. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wehner arrived last Friday from Dayton, Ohio to be the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Bundy of Rouge Circle in Troy township.

The duty of taking the school census in Troy township has been keeping Mrs. John J. Southard of North Adams very busy these days.

Jack H. Dillon of Butternut Hill left last Friday for New York City to attend a convention of the IBM One hundred Percent Club at the Waldorf. Mrs. Dillon's mother, Mrs. John M. Pullar of De-troit, came out to stay with her daughter and infant son, Michael, until Mr. Dillon's return on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. C. Berry of Hy-lane drive has returned from Mil-waukee, Wis., where she attended a reunion of her family. The occasion of the celebration was the nineteenth birthday of her grand-daughter, Madeline Kennedy, who is a student at Butler University, will rejoin his family in Birmingham as soon as school is out.

The trip from Schenectady to Detroit has been two-fold in importance to Rev. Frank Cherubini whose church is Trinity Presby-terian church of Schenectady, N. Y. He has been in Detroit attending the 1954 Assembly of the Presby-terian Church in the U. S. A. The second nice thing about his visit is the fact that his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Riching, is a resident of these parts. Rev. Cherubini was able to be with Mrs. Riching Wed-nesday night and to spend the weekend with her and Mr. Riching in their new home on Butternut Hill, Troy township, before return- ing to New York State.

Lucy Gay and Matthew Smith took their sister's baby kittens to school last Thursday. Nancyray's cat has five babies. The Quintin first visited Mrs. Paul M. Davis of Poppleton school in her kindergar- ten room, where Matthew holds forth of a morning. All the chil- dren watched a lot and touched a little as they stood around the boy that served as a cat to the five.

The little calves went up to Mrs. Gil's room for a minute to make another call, then Lucy Gay had a chance to show the additions in the family to Mrs. E. M. Shafter and the second graders. The little kittens were so weery from all Residents of Pine Hill have tak- en over all of the responsibilities of the subdivision and have formed an association that is this year presided over by Robert Lossing, who resides on Butternut Hill drive.

The Oakland County Kennel Club Show in Oak Park drew sev- en hundred and ninety-five entries last Sunday. This number was the largest in its eighteen years of existence. Young Chris Teeter, of East Long Lake road, is the owner of Ch. Slowpoke Robertson, who was judged best in the Hound Class.
