

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Third Grade News—Mrs. Pike. The good citizens are Linda Stevenson and Joe Thomas. Our class gets out of school the sixteenth of July. The president is Scott Robinson and the vice president is Jen Willey. We changed our desks around. Sandy Ekens is home with a bad cold.

We started Chinese reading. We read on Tuesday. Mary Hawkins brought her violin and played very nice pieces on it. Her sister played some pieces too. Reporter, Marjorie Woodson.

Fifth Grade—Miss Alcorn. In Miss Alcorn's room we have two new students. Their names are Jana Berne and Mary Louise Benson. Friday the 21st the words rang out "We want a Field Day at Bloomfield Village School. Children were making petitions. This week we elected new class officers. President, Tim Bannion; vice president, Michael Horner; reporter, Bill Berling.

SIXTH GRADE—Mr. Crandall. May 13 the elections turned out president, Bonnie Carter, and school chairman, John Sisson and Marilyn Michaels; room chairman, Danby Higgins and Judy Meloch.

The honor citizens from the sixth grade are Francis Von Maur and Jim Broadwell. The honor pairs are Jack Gurney, Penny Blum and Jackie Paulus. Sly-Cy, our alligator, is in alcohol and is expected to be stuffed soon. We have a turtle now, so we don't feel so bad about the dead Sly-Cy. We have been vanishing our desks. They are almost done now. Fritz and George Harris are having a birthday. George has vaulted 5 ft. 2 in. That is the record for the school so far. Reporters, Ralph Mark and Francis Von Maur.

Kingswood School Student Officers Are Announced

Next year's class and school officers have been announced at Kingswood school.

In a recent assembly this year's officers introduced their successors. Those elected by the student body to lead the Student Council are Ellen Flint, president; Debby Moore, vice president; and Jocelyn Sofield, secretary. The representatives to the Student Council will be Nancy Sterling, seniors; Mary Blair, juniors; Becky Erwin, sophomores; Sue Flint, freshmen; and Peggy Wayne, Eighth Grade. Also announced are next year's class presidents: Marilyn Nelson is senior class president; Sylvia Trythall, junior president; Ann Grice, sophomore; Kathy Van Dusen, freshman; and Becky DeWitt, eighth grade. The president of the Dormitory Council for 1955 is Liz Kirk, and Drieka Martin has been elected president of the Student Cabinet.—ALICE MOHLER.

Senior Dinner Set for Tonight

The traditional senior dinner in honor of the class of '54 is set for tonight in the Maple room. Dinner will be followed by a speech by Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent, entitled "The Summit Lies Ahead." Presentation of honors will be made by Ross A. Wagner, principal. Alice Richards will honor the valedictorian and salutatorian.

Cherry Harris and George Stinnett will then present the results of the mock elections, a highlight of the program. Jerry Beck will salute the advisers in "A Word

"I have no luck as a fisherman. Tired of small stuff, I went out with a whaling party."

"I harpooned a seventy-five ton whale. The captain said it was a small one."

Russ Hibbard cleared 5 ft. 11 1/4 in. to take third in the high jump behind Willard Neely of Ypsilanti and Chuck McKinney of Ferndale who tied for first with a jump of 6 ft. 1 1/4 in.

The exceptionally well-run meet was an exciting one, with two state records falling and three others missed by one-tenth of a second. Muskegon boy, Joel Boyden, put the 12 pound shot 57 ft. to better the old record of 54 ft. 4 in. which stood for six years.

In the first race of the split 440, A. Dixon of Kalamazoo ran 51.0 to break the old record by .3 second. Saginaw relied on depth to win the meet by a narrow margin with Flint Northern runner-up.

Seniors Guests Of Junior Class At Annual J-Hop

Following the tradition started by last year's junior class, the class of '55 will honor the seniors with the J-Hop June 4 from nine till one in the Birmingham high school gym.

Fred Netting and his 12 piece band will play for the dancers with Charlie Palmer featured as vocalist. The theme is a modern one but the juniors will release no details because it is to be a surprise.

The juniors have been working since January to make this dance the best of the year. The undertaking is financed entirely by money-making projects sponsored by students.

J-Hop general chairman is Charlene Sutfin. Working under her are Gordon Pade, band; Howard Leav-enworth, chaperones; Pete Kass, clean-up and Beth Saylor, refreshments. Junior advisers helping with the project are Miss Dorothy Allen, Miss Charlotte Will and George Cooch.

Winner Can't Go, But Runner-up Will

Winner of the Wolverine girls' state trip to the conference at Ann Arbor this summer is Sue Spencer.

Sue won over Charlene Sutfin by one vote. Because Sue can't go, Charlene will represent Birmingham.

Charlene will leave June 15 for the University of Michigan where she will meet with 300 girls from all over the state.

Two girls will be chosen at the meeting to represent Michigan in the conference at Washington, D. C. at a later date. Charlene will return home June 23.

The trip is sponsored by the American legion auxiliary.
