EAST BEVERLY—Girl Scout Troop Day which is to be held at the Community House May 12 is keeping troop members and their leaders busy making preparations. Troop Day is designed to familiarize other troops with the activities of each other and give the leaders new ideas.

Mrs. John Naylor and Mrs. Charles Brindle, leaders of Brownie Troop 358 are helping their eleven Brownie members to prepare a display of their year's projects. The girls, who are third graders, meet at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church and have been involved in making such things as scrap books, felt purses, and lapel pins.

Mrs. Donald Custance, leader of Girl Scout Troop 374 reports that her sixteen members will display a scrapbook which they have planned to give to the children's ward of St. Joseph Mercy hospital. They will also be showing photographs taken of their winter sleigh ride. Troop 374 recently took a guided tour through Baldwin library and Saturday May 1, they held a cook-out at Springdale Park. A one pot meal was prepared, and later instructions were given in blazing trails. The girls are fifth graders and meet at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church.

Michael Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly of Auburn, provided some of the entertainment for the Torrey School Cub Scout father-son party. The party held April 30, presented Michael in a ventriloquist act with his dummy Pat.

and Garry both presented trumpet solos.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilshire of Birwood have announced the birth of a daughter, Jane, born April 12. The Wilshires have another daughter Susan, age one and a half.

Mrs. Robert Krogh recently welcomed her parents from Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Motzko, for a week-end visit. Coming with them were their two sons, Daniel and Timothy, along with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Motzko.

Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor of Sheridan returned April 23 from a ten day trip to Staunton, Va. and Williamsburg. Enjoying the trip through the Shenandoah Valley where the dogwood and apple blossoms were in full bloom were the Naylor's two daughters, Virginia and Caroline.

Mrs. W. F. Rostoff of Bloomfield Village entertained her bowling teammates with cocktails Wednesday, May 5. The group which included Mrs. James Martin, Mrs. Thomas Devine, Mrs. Robert Altman, and Mrs. Robert Krogh later joined other members of the Ladies' Junior House Bowling League for their banquet, held at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Floyd Cozmi of Birwood will entertain her neighborhood sewing group in her home this evening. The group which combines sewing with bridge consists of Mrs. Fred Walker, Mrs. Elman Crabtree, Mrs. Harold Simpson, Mrs. Herbert Luxon, Mrs. Joseph Pietro, Mrs. Tyler Perkins, Mrs. Norman Schultz, Mrs. Don Wilshire, Mrs. William Munch, Mrs. Jack Goodhall, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Glenn Ford, and Mrs. Trevor Hall.

Six Young Musicians Merit Scholarships

Birmingham Musicale $50 scholarships for summer study go this year to Pat Berkeley, Jane Ann Russell and Caroline Shattuck, pianists; Mary Jo Allright, flute; John Kerley, saxophone and trombone and Joan Gassaway, oboe. The group will study music during the summer at Michigan State college or Interlochen.

In announcing the winners, Joan Gassaway was cited to receive an additional $25 scholarship as being the outstanding auditioner of the group.
