ognition of their finishing in first place. All awards will be presented at the bowlers' luncheon at the Birmingham Country Club today.

Hostess to her teammates at luncheon at her home on Scenic drive last Thursday was Mrs. Claude Cook.

Mrs. John Murtagh entertained several of the bowlers at her home on Overhill road last week. Her guests were Mesdames Henry Buegel, Pat Ryers, Edwin Vasehiser, Ralph Charbeneau, Norman Currin, John Gray, Leonard Lawton, Dick Probst, Nicholas Rosiello, Bob Squires and Phil Van Dyke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Faulkner and children, Janice and Johnny, who left on the first of April for a California vacation, returned recently to their home on Scenic drive. They visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller, in the San Fernando valley.

Members of St. Anne's Guild will hold their last meeting before fall at noon next Wednesday, May 12, at the Franklin road home of Mrs. Phil Van Dyke. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Steve Kowalski and Mrs. Stephen Petix. Among other items of business, the ladies will make final plans for the Guild's dessert card party to be held at the Franklin Community Hall on May 18.

Art Instructor Presents Class In Annual Show

The adult painting class, a part of the Community House adult educational program, will celebrate its 10th anniversary when the instructor, Mrs. Paul Schaefer, presents the annual exhibit on May 9. The affair will be held at the Schaefer home, 855 West Maple, beginning at 3 p.m.

Two groups are represented, according to Mrs. Schaefer, a general student in painting and a life class. Exhibitors will include Mesdames George E. Hoke, Edward L. Dangler, Jr., Walter G. Patton, Barrett Mason, Harry Sherwood, H. A. Wentworth, Ernest Baumgarth, Charles Green, Bernice Dixon and Arlene Diehr.

MRS. BAUMGARTH, for many years a Birmingham resident and now of Detroit, will have four pictures (watercolor) on display which will be entered with the works of seven other painters in the forthcoming watercolor show in Detroit. She currently has one painting showing in New York City.

One painting of Mrs. Green's which hung in the Michigan Artists' show will be displayed here.

MRS. DINGLER, specializing in moderns in watercolor, will have several of her pictures on display. Mrs. Schaefer said probably the most interesting showing will be that of Mrs. Sherwood, whose media is hammered brass and bronze. "She switched from color painting to working with metal in mid-term," Mrs. Schaefer comments. "None of us know much about that type of work, but we all enjoy watching the progress of her pictures and, of course, we all offer advice. Some of her output is very good and all extremely interesting."

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
