LATHRUP VILLAGE—The May business meeting of the Lathrup Woman's Club was held on Monday, May 3 at the House in the Woods in Lathrup Village with Mrs. Connel Bloom, president, presiding. Following the yearly reports given by the officers and committee chairmen, the drama group of the club presented a comedy in one act by Mr. Albert M. Brown, entitled "When Women Meet."

The group was directed by Mrs. Thomas A. Gibbs and the following cast took part: Mrs. Robert Marshall, Mrs. Charles M. Cook, Mrs. George Rowland, Mrs. Madeline Dieren, Mrs. Kai E. Hanson and Mrs. Charles Buhler. The tea committee was headed by Mrs. Everett Nelson who was assisted by Mrs. Dana Norton, Mrs. Robert Canham, Mrs. James Corke, Mrs. Robert Steger, Mrs. Alphons Meyer and Mrs. Robert Ofenstein. Pouring were Mrs. Joseph Andrews and Mrs. Richard Anderson. The tea table and centerpieces were done by Mrs. Vincent Zatl, chairman of the Garden division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lusk and daughter Joyce of Yorktown, Ind. were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nash and daughter Elaine, of Goldensgate drive.

The PTA will have their final meeting for the year on Tuesday May 11. Open House begins at 7:15 with the business meeting at 8 p.m. Installation of officers by Mrs. Halley Taggart, president of the Southfield Area Council of Parent Teacher Associations will be held. Installed will be president, Mr. Richard Cogger; father vice president, Mr. Charles A. Horv; mother vice president, Mrs. E. J. Ristau; teacher vice president, Mrs. Edna Rex; recording secretary, Refreshments are being arranged by Mrs. Morton Gravelle, chairman of the fifth grade mothers. Assisting will be Mrs. Jack Trimble and Mrs. Kelly Keith, chairmen of the fifth and sixth grade mothers, and Mrs. Clement Erbacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Koppin of El Dorado have returned from Hartford, Conn., where they spent six weeks. Time was spent touring Boston, Providence, R.I., and a visit to Plymouth, Mass. Several days were spent in Ontario at the Sheraton Brock hotel and the Niagara Falls (Canadian side).

Miss Sue Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jarvis of Goldenue, was presented the Alumni Award for the outstanding Senior of Chi Omega Sorority at Michigan State College. The award is based on work with the Alumni morale in the house and contributions to the house. Sue has just completed a year as president. She will graduate in June.

The Jarvis' son, Bob, a member of Alpha Tau Omega at State, attended his fraternity's convocation at the University of Michigan last week-end.

The scheduling and the confirmation cards will be handled by Mrs. Frank J. Arnold. Each member of the recruiting committee will appoint eleven phone callers, who will in turn, cover one column of the Southfield telephone directory. By this method it is hoped to reach every potential donor in Southfield Township.

Circles 1, 2 and 3 of The Woman's Association of the Community Church met in Fellowship Hall on Wednesday, April 28. The group sewed on aprons for the Holiday Fair to be held in December. Following lunch served by members of circle three, the ladies formed into their respective circles and elected the following officers: Circle 1, chairman, Mrs. William Arverson; co-chairman, Mrs. Harold Nash; secretary, Mrs. Edwin Schippl; treasurer and Fair representative, Mrs. Robert Steger; publicity, Mrs. Byron Holmes. Circle 1's booth at the Fair will be the "Pantry Shop."
