Maynard-Burkholder Vows Said Saturday

Wearing a white satin gown fashioned with a basque bodice, scalloped at the waistline, Roberta Faye Burkholder was married to Jerre Robert Maynard on Saturday.

The service was read at 4 o'clock in the Mary Sabina chapel, Lansing, with the Rev. Paul Morrison officiating. A reception followed in the parlors of Central Methodist church.

The new Mrs. Maynard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Burkholder of Manton, Mich. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Maynard, 919 Mohegan drive.

PEARL centered sheer marquisette flowers were fagotted into the deep neckline of the gown and long fitted sleeves came to points over the wrists. A full gathered skirt fell into a moderate length train. Her tiered fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a satin wedding ring tiara designed in pearls. She carried white tulips and ivy.

Honor attendant was Mrs. James E. Sandberg of Cadillac. She wore a waltz length gown of white nylon net, matching slippers and a head-piece of yellow daffodils. She carried a spring bouquet of pastel tulips and daffodils.

BEST MAN was Bruce Maynard. Seating the guests were Robert Falberg and Stanley Schaefer.

Mrs. Burkholder attended the wedding and reception wearing a navy silk shantung dress with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white rubrum lilies. The bridegroom's mother had a corsage of cymbidium orchids pinned to her navy silk suit.

For traveling Roberta donned a gold colored suit with brown and beige accessories. Upon returning from their Northern Michigan wedding trip they will reside at 915 Oakland.

Wedding guests were from Lansing, Howell, Eaton Rapids, Traverse City, Cadillac and Detroit.
