Are Among Planners Of 'Geography Day'

Mary Ann Swartz, daughter of Chambers of commerce, civic Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. George, and state organizations, and business firms are cooperating in presentations of reports and exhibits. The committee on prizes includes sponsoring reports and an exhibit featuring the central division, alumna Mary Tighe, 439 Park, including Michigan, at United States Geography day, Detroit Commercial college May 7.

DENIM

by White Stag

Denim rates tops with men in their "puttering about" hours . . . working in the garden, tinkering, driving the car . . . or just plain loafing. Denim has what most men admire most in play-time tops . . . the ability to "take it". Never has to be pampered! Mom favors its washability . . . so, everybody's happy with denim.
