WALNUT LAKE—An open house, a program by the children and installation of officers are planned for the Walnut Lake PTA meeting on Monday, May 10. Although the April meeting was held in the school, for most Walnut Lake people this will be the first opportunity to see all of the new addition.

The Girl Scout Neighborhood Association met April 27 at the home of Mrs. Harold Jones. Plans were made for the annual Award of Merit ceremony on May 10. Those present were Mrs. Robert Myers, Mrs. Julian Osterstein, Mrs. John Parkinson, Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, Mrs. R. M. Sutton, Mrs. Reginald Smith, Mrs. Perry Graber, Mrs. Robert Eisen, Mrs. John Walters, Mrs. J. B. Roberts and Mrs. Robert Smith, who will be the neighborhood chairman next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Leach have moved to Detroit. For several years the Leachs have maintained residences at Walnut Lake and at the Teal Music studio on Second avenue, where they will now live. Recent weekend guests at the home of the D. C. Hamiltons of Sunnyside drive were Mrs. Hampton's cousin and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lee of Phillipsburg, N. J.

Sally Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee D. Hanson of Putnam drive, received high honors last week when one of her short stories was awarded a national first in the junior division of the Scholastic writing awards.

The announcement was made at the presentation of Southeastern Michigan regional scholastic writing awards at the Rackham Memorial building, which Mr. and Mrs. Hanson and their daughters, Sally and Mrs. Howard Owen, attended April 26. In the regional competition, Sally received a key award for her short story and one commendation each for another short story, a poem and an essay.

The Hansons also had an opportunity last week to see their son and daughter-in-law, 2nd Lieut. and Mrs. Lee C. Hanson, who were here on a 15 day leave from Ft. Dix. The entire family, fourteen strong, gathered at the Hansons' home April 25 for Sunday breakfast.

Celebrating her fifth birthday last Sunday was Cynthia Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson of Walnut Lake road. Her guests for the occasion were Linda Cleveland of Birmingham, Philip, Don and Larry Emrich and her sister Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gibson, Sharon, Gerald, Lynn and Diane spent the past weekend at Dayton, Ohio, where they were guests of Gibson's sister and her family, the Major C. F. Allens. Highlighting their visit was a dinner at the Officers' Club Saturday evening. Gibson's mother, Mrs. Olive Fligley of Royal Oak, made the return trip with them.

ing at Clearwater, they enjoyed deep-sea fishing and visited the Cypress Gardens and other points of interest.

A party for members of her kindergarten class marked the fifth birthday of Marjorie Alain, daughter of the Vincent Alains of Inkster road last Sunday. Guests were Cindy Thomas, Christie Gould, Janis Phelps, Lynda Moyns, Andy Block, Gloria Noggle, Susan Harness, Kim Roberts, Donny Camp, James LaMotte, Tommy Brovarney, Roy Nelson, Bobby Butler, Bobby Miles, Richard Baker, Stevie Schill and Randy Brovarney. Mrs. Alain was assisted by Mrs. Sally Burke, Mrs. Martin Wade, Penny King and Jim Alain.

Brownie Troop 325 and Girl Scout Troop 113 had a joint meeting at the school last week. Diane Martin was hostess for the Brownies and Carmen Sutton and Karen Overgard for Troop 113.

Several members of Troop 360 were interviewed at their meeting April 26 by Mrs. Robert Kelso of Birmingham as part of a survey being conducted by the Southern Oakland Council of the Girl Scout organization. The purpose of the survey is to find out whether Scouting is providing the kind of program the girls want and need.

Walnut Lake Cub Scouts went to the Pontiac YMCA last Saturday for an afternoon of swimming. Dads going with the boys were Phil Emrich, Vernon Nickel, Clare Hollenberg, Clifford Williams and Kenneth Quick.

Den 1 made turtles from shells last week. Brian Opris is keeper of the buckskins. Cubs of Den 5 finished their bookends and judged birdhouses. Don Palmer reported. Den 3 played games indoors. Billy Quick served nibs.

Junior Big had as chaperones last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweet and Mrs. John Parkinson. Games, movies and dancing occupied the evening.
