Honeymoon Destination In Smoky Mountains
 Carolyn Sue Marshall became the bride of Lt. (jg) Roland Henry Watson at an afternoon ceremony Nov. 1 in Trinity Methodist church. The Rev. C. Raymond Earle read the double ring rites before 150 wedding guests.
 The bride was gowned in candlelight satin fashioned with long sleeves, inset panels of imported French lace and a full skirt ending in a chapel train. She had a fingertip veil and carried Fuji mums and ivy.
 Carolyn is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. Roland H. Marshall of Lafayette, Ind. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Watson of Frank street.

HONOR ATTENDANT was Mrs. Hugh Pence, sister of the bride from Alexandria, Va. She wore a gown of forest green crystalline with a matching headress adorned with ruff mums. She carried Fuji mums in a chapel train. Her bridesmaid was Mrs. Richard Steffy of Berwyn, Ill., a sister of the groom, was in honor wearing an identical gown. She carried light yellow Fuji mums.
 Richard Steffy of Berwyn, Ill., was his brother-in-law's best man. Assisting as usher was Frank Clark of Midletown, Conn., brother-in-law of the bride.
 Ringbearers were Douglas Steffy and Robert Clark, nephews of the groom and bride, respectively.

Wed in Texas
 Lt. Allen D. Fremody, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas H. Fremody of Birmingham, took as his bride Katherine Casey, daughter of Mr. E. F. Casey and the late Mrs. Casey of Madisonville, Tenn. The couple were married in Waco, Texas, where Lt. Fremody has completed 22 months of training in the Air Force. They will visit Lt. Fremody's parents on Woodward avenue en route to his new base.

B-26 Activities Keep Troop Busy
 Scout Troop B-26 has been growing rapidly since it was started a year ago in September by the Cambusook school fire department.
 Among the troop's most recent activities is the Eagle Lake (Pond Hill), a part of the Highland Recreation Area. Among highlights of the day was a hike around one of the lakes, led by William Stapp, athletic coach and biology teacher at Cambusook School. A trail was also laid out by Scoutmaster Senory and John Leslie, one of the troop leaders.
 Another activity carried on was signaling by means of wig wag flag; this was a requirement for the first class badge.
 On Oct. 14 the troop held a Halloween party complete with dancing and refreshments.
 On Tuesday, November 9 a court of honor was held during which many of the scouts were presented with first and second class badges.
 Everyone in the troop is looking forward to a three day overnight at Camp Howell, which will take place Thanksgiving weekend.
