

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, November 11, 1954

SECTION 2

Puppets Move as Puppeteers At Festival Recall Trooping

Three puppet shows a day... And it can mean, many friendships... at the Detroit Art Institute.

Barbara Amundson, puppeteer... she came to Birmingham... she conducted the puppeteers...

Barbara Amundson, puppeteer... she came to Birmingham... she conducted the puppeteers...

Doctor Discusses Problems of the Disturbed Child

Dr. Clark Mustakas of the Merrill Palmer school will speak... on the problems of the "disturbed" child...

Dr. Clark Mustakas of the Merrill Palmer school will speak... on the problems of the "disturbed" child...

Dr. Clark Mustakas of the Merrill Palmer school will speak... on the problems of the "disturbed" child...

Ball Benefits Student Fund Children Showing at Cranbrook More UN Interest

Following an 11 year custom for Kingswood and Cranbrook school... the student fund children showing...

Following an 11 year custom for Kingswood and Cranbrook school... the student fund children showing...

Following an 11 year custom for Kingswood and Cranbrook school... the student fund children showing...

Hawaiian Vacation

Dorena Sum left Saturday with her mother... for a Hawaiian vacation...

Dorena Sum left Saturday with her mother... for a Hawaiian vacation...

Dorena Sum left Saturday with her mother... for a Hawaiian vacation...

Annual Party Welcomes New Residents

Several hundred new Birmingham residents were guests of the city's Newcomers club annual party...

Several hundred new Birmingham residents were guests of the city's Newcomers club annual party...

Several hundred new Birmingham residents were guests of the city's Newcomers club annual party...

WHEN ENSIGN ROGER Gravdon Booth, U.S.N., received the coveted "Wings of Gold" it occasioned a family gathering. Shown with Ensign Booth are his parents, Col. William Booth, U.S.A.F., and Mrs. Booth, his wife, the former Gloria Mae Dornan, and their son, The Boobies lived in Birmingham until about six years ago. Ensign Booth was a student at Miami University before entering the Navy, and received his commission from the Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1953. Specializing in multi-engine land based patrol bombers, he is being transferred to Whittier Island, Washington, for duty with the second patrol squadron.

Galls Take Guests To Football Foray

Saturday morning will find approximately 100 guests of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Galt heading for the Hill Country club for breakfast to start off a busy day at Ann Arbor and at the club.

To Discuss Toys When Newcomers Meet on Nov. 18

Educational toys and play materials for the young child will be the subject of the Birmingham Newcomers club on Nov. 18, when Rea Barr Baker, director of the club, will preside.

Programs, Projects Proposed At WNFG National Conference

As a member of the National Council of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Mrs. William McCallum attended the National Council meeting held in New York City.

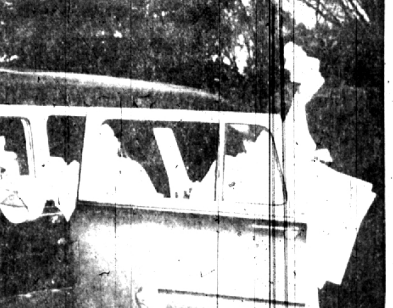

As a member of the National Council of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Mrs. William McCallum attended the National Council meeting held in New York City.

As a member of the National Council of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Mrs. William McCallum attended the National Council meeting held in New York City.

Party Before Dance

Following a party held at the Holy Name P.T.A. club... the dance will be held at the Community House.

PLANS FOR A P.T.A. DANCE include the poster placing for these three members of Holy Name school's group. Mrs. G. C. Goode, Jr., takes drivers duties as Mrs. Walter L. Finn, already in the station wagon, and Mrs. Robert M. Dailey, pile in with cardboard notices of the event. The dance will feature ballroom and square dancing from 9 to 12 at the Community House on Saturday night. The event is open to the public.

History Chairman At Wayne Will Be Next LWV Speaker

The chairman of Wayne county's history department, Mrs. Eleanor Gaffill, as she announced plans for taking the "Orange Crate Theater" to Birmingham public school fourth grades next week.

The chairman of Wayne county's history department, Mrs. Eleanor Gaffill, as she announced plans for taking the "Orange Crate Theater" to Birmingham public school fourth grades next week.

Comedy, Music Will Highlight 'Closed' Show

There are no comedy, music and musical acts from "The Black and White" show at the Community House.

