

Open House Affair Planned for Pierce

The Nov. 18 meeting of Pierce PTA will, according to Charles Mason, president, take the form of the annual open house. Scheduled for 8 p.m., parents will be given the opportunity to visit classrooms and view the work children are doing, as well as meet teachers.

A. C. Spierling, membership chairman, will have room mothers and fathers in each room to re-

West Beverly WNFG Plans Now for Christmas Giving

Already planning ahead to Christmas are members of the West Beverly branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association, who will meet Thursday in the home of Mrs. Harry Hyvonen, of Mayfair lane.

The day's project will be decoration of 100 cards which members will fill with Christmas wishes and give to county institutions. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Wallace Cunningham and Mrs. Ernest George.

The group's fall project was brought to a successful close two weeks ago when Mrs. Alvin Knorr and Mrs. Henry Jones, representing the West Beverly branch, delivered 1,000 tulip bulbs to the Beverly school. Members also helped with the planting of the bulbs, which were bought with funds contributed by West Beverly WNFG members.

SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

The intent group conferring at Beverly school shortly after the polls closed Nov. 2, were not mulling out post-election strategy, but were laying plans for the Beverly school open house, to be held Wednesday night, Nov. 17, at the school.

Among the conferees were John Toines, of Kinross road, PTA president; Bill Price, of Desborough road, father was president, and Steve Mansard, of Hillcrest road, chairman of the event.

RETURN FROM TRIPS

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Coon, of Riverside drive, flew into Detroit Nov. 11, after a two-week stay at the Kenilworth in Bal Harbor, Fla.

The new antique tea kettle at the Paul DalRoska residence on Kirkshire road, is ample proof of its owner's ability to get by those roots of antique shops in New Orleans. The DalRoskas returned ten days ago from a two-week automobile trip from the East coast to Florida and back. They drove down the Skyline drive and Blue Ridge parkway to Asheville, one of the most beautiful of Florida's favorite attractions, then started north by way of Biloxi and New Orleans, where they stayed two days.

A neighborhood "Sp and Chat cocktail party" is being planned for adult residents of this area by the West Beverly house-club. Designed to help new and old residents to get better acquainted, the affair will be held on Saturday.

Sale Gay with Reds, Greens

Christmas greens, in charge of Birmingham U. of D. alumnae Mrs. E. T. Nolan, is just one of the many offerings to be found in the "Holiday Card Party and Fair" she and fellow alumnae have planned for Saturday, Nov. 20.

Already mail reminders to members and friends of the University of Detroit Alumnae association have gone out from Mrs. John Erwin, of Birmingham, and her committee. Seeking items from local members have been Mrs. Harold Hobson, Mrs. Margus Power and Mrs. J. Timothy Griss.

In the photo, Mrs. Holden displays one of the sale's tricker items, a red circle for concealing that sturdy but ugly wood base for the Christmas tree.

Those going for the sale that starts at 1:30 p.m. in the U-D Memorial building's main floor arena, and the fair at 2 p.m. will day at Birmingham country club. Bill Bricker program chairman has gathered together a group of nine entertainers, including Charles Vogel, Bill Price and Tom Halstead, but no one is talking.

Combe Barton was hostess at a recent party in big Dunblaine road home. Attending was a group of Combe's classmates at Holy Name school.

Just turned 10-year-old Margy Dornick celebrated her 10th birthday by inviting 16 friends to supper at her Beeson-shed road home, followed by a party at Egg's Ranch. Her guests were 41 local members on Girl Scout Troop 303, and Kitty Stark, Pam Jones and Lily and Jeanette Vogel.

The day before the party, Troop 303 members paid a visit to the Franklin color mill.
