

Article Tells Why Local Girl Chose Teaching Career

One of the six teachers chosen by a nearby daily to prepare an article in observance of Education Week is Mary Peden Shepard.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Peden, 1404 Ferrie, and a Baldwin high school graduate. Mrs. Shepard has taught fourth grade for two years at the Rochester (community school) after graduating from Michigan State College of Education. In addition to her school work, she interests herself in the general activities of young people. In her article on "Why I Am a Teacher," Mrs. Shepard stressed the importance of her calling and the influence she and all others in her profession have on the children of today who will be the leaders of tomorrow.

Wing Lake - Foxcroft Wing Lake Farm Residents Sponsor Square Dance Party

Cocktail parties were the order of the evening for many Wing Lake Farm couples before attending the recent square dance sponsored by Wing Lake Farms, Inc., at the Franklin Community Center.

Thomas Stacey's hosted a party for guests, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Juett, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Davis of Wing Lake Farms, Mr. and Mrs. Cress Fox of Dearborn.

Another gathering was held at the Franklin road home of the Alberts for friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ghesquiere of Wing Lake Farms.

Following cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at the Ottawa lane home of the Earl Stuckeys were Mr. and Mrs. Bess Elbert, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Seibert and Mr. and Mrs. Meade Sullivan of Wing Lake Farms.

Formerly of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Doucet, Jr. and three-year-old daughter, Diane, moved into their new home on Sandy lane three weeks ago. Doucet is advertising manager for Vickers, Inc. in Detroit. He is an alumnus of the Delta Theta at Northwestern university.

Doucet won first prize at the recent "New" "Do It Yourself Show" with his modern designed desk and chair.

GIRL SQUAD OUTING

Mr. Jack Mustard and co-sponsors, Mr. D. R. Scamman and Mrs. George Kramer, are sponsoring Scout Troop 101 to a four-day summer camp in Pontiac, Nov. 27.

Enjoying the trip through the greenwoods were Patricia Dilow, Marshall, Va.; Janice Holmbeck, Frank Kramer, Sylvania, La.; Rhonda, Martin, Linda Mashone, Marjorie Sanders, Laura Stoddard, Jeanne Michael, Patricia Korman, Shirl Staman and Kathleen Reska. Although a bit too young for membership, five-year-old Mary Jane Kramer accompanied the troop with her mother.

HAYRIDE PARTY

Wendy Sanderson entertained guests at a hayride party the evening of Nov. 22. The party was held at a farm on Roy's ranch (Maple near Haggerty highway). The party returned to the Sanderson's Thurler road home to enjoy games and refreshments in the parlor which had been turned into a "twelve hideout" with decorations of corn, shocks, skeletons and other things.

Guests who Julie De Vlog, Long Lake; Dick McDonald, Pine Lake; Richard Slack, Niagara Falls; Karen Carter, Dwight, LaBelle; Doug Danziger, Fort Leodeur, Maryland; Schmidt and Tom Stewart of Wing Lake.

Chaperones were Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Lockess, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Danziger.

Mrs. Ralph Darling entertained with a luncheon at her Sunningdale home recently.

For a centerpiece on her table, Mrs. Darling used a cornucopia filled with variegated corn, eggplant and assorted foods.

A game of scrabble followed the luncheon with Mrs. Arthur Wilbur of Detroit winning first prize. Other guests were Mrs. George Wilbur, Forest Lake, and Mrs. G. Meyers of Detroit.

ATTEND CONVENTION

The Mrs. Knott of Valley Forge has returned from a week's stay at the December hotel at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they attended the convention of the American Institute of Steel Construction.

During their stay, they took a day's drive to Hot Springs, W. Va., in order to see the mountains in their fall colors. At the Homestead hotel, they watched the hotel waiters compete in their annual golf tournament on the lawn, balancing metal trays laden with dishes upon their heads.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Jesson attended a recent membership convention at the Oakland County Dental Society.

The couple drove to Miami, Fla., to attend the five day convention of the American Dental Association Nov. 15 through Nov. 19, to which Dr. Jesson is a delegate.

Jesson is a former president of the Western Dental Club, Detroit District Dental Society and a trustee of the Michigan State Dental Association. Mrs. Jesson is a past president of the Detroit District and Michigan State Auxiliary.

After the convention at Miami, the Jessons will fly to Havana, Cuba for a week's stay before returning to their Detroit home.

FOXROCK MEETING

The Foxcroft Improvement Association met at the Tanglewood Court home of John Black, chairman of public relations, on Nov. 14. After general business, the association discussed the "mystery funds" sponsored by the Foxcroft Improvement Association.

Foxcrofters who are interested will please call Mr. and Mrs. Myron Martin, Cranbrook road; Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Geymann, Bretton drive; Mr. and Mrs. William Bonner, Ashton road; and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Evans, West Morland road, attended the Christ Church Society's Winter Carnival benefit at the Latin Quarter in Detroit.

three day sightseeing tour Nov. 23 were Mrs. H. W. Sanderson, daughter, Wendy, and Wendy's cousin, Judy Rogers of Beverly Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen James and friends, Dr. and Mrs. Darrell Stetler of Sullivan, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Bivaw, Detroit, enjoyed an early lunch at the James' Wing Lake home before driving to Ann Arbor to see the Michigan Illinois game, Nov. 23.

GARDEN CLUBS

Members of the Foxcroft and Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden clubs are setting aside Dec. 7 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the Christmas work shop to be held at the Bloomfield Township hall on Telegraph.

Members will make Christmas decorations for their own use under the able instruction of Mrs. William Yager.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wing Lake Shores Farm and Garden club was held at the Bloomfield Township home of Mrs. Edgar Delaney, Nov. 11.

Guest speakers Mrs. L. E. Carter, gave a remarkable presentation of the history and culture of the Iris and Hemorrhoid.

Pointing out were Mrs. Martin Potts and Mrs. Fred Graunert. Mrs. George Kohn was co-hostess.

Organ Society to Nominate Officers

November meeting of the Birmingham Harmonic Organ Society was held at Christ Church Temple.

PTO TEA PLANNED

Mrs. Constance Van Halbeurn, secretary of the Wing Lake PTO, reports that the Wing Lake PTO is giving a tea, Dec. 5, featuring the room mother and teachers in the all-purpose room at Wing Lake school at 4 p.m., Dec. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCain of Sandy lane left Oct. 31 for a five-day business and pleasure trip to Chicago, Ill. During their stay at the Edgewater Beach hotel, the McCains enjoyed visiting several well-known restaurants, among them the Marine room.
