JUST BEFORE CAKE CUTTING TIME

Mrs. Archie B. McCall, (right) president of the Berkshires branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association and Mrs. B. William Westcott, (left) pose for the branch's first birthday celebration, held Tuesday, Nov. 2 at the Birmingham Community House. Mrs. Westcott baked the cake that was iced in baby pink with delicate blue flowers. It was designed to be cut so that each member had a lighted candle on her piece. Guest speakers, Dorothy Brooks, a staff member of a Pontiac floral company worked up 11 exquisite floral arrangements, later quickly snatched up by the membership.

JC Auxiliary Takes 2 Projects

Two projects undertaken by the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary this year are making gift boxes for the Pontiac State hospital and making cartons for Michigan Psychiatric association sales.

The women, meeting recently at Mrs. C. E. Carigan's home, planned to collect clothing, books and personal favors for 100 patients in the hospital. Gift boxes will be taken out this year.

At the next, the group made favors for a party given by the Junior at the Detroit Children's home.

Women whose husbands are interested in the Junior Chamber should contact the auxiliary's membership chairman, M. C. Ryan.
