Room Mothers, Teachers Meet at Dinner Party

With the Lathrup PTA executive board as hostesses, a "get-acquainted" dinner was held Tuesday, Nov. 2 at the Sea Food Grille. Honored guests of Lathrup school room mothers and the PTA executive board were Miss Kathryn McLean, principal and all teachers of the school.

A short social period preceded the dinner with Mrs. Lynn Hobbs, hospitality chairman, Mrs. Charles Cannon, social chairman, and Mrs. Arthur Homer, assistant social chairman, welcoming guests.

The dinner, which permitted room mothers and teachers to become better acquainted early in the school year, was planned by room mothers Mrs. Elton Lorne, Mrs. Clayton Ewers and Mrs. Alex Martin, executive board member.

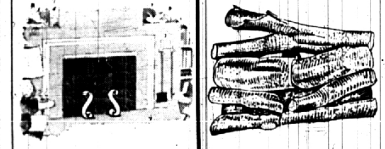

Spending the weekend at their respective homes were Lyle Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Brown of Meadowood drive;

New Presbyterian Church Services Held in Rev. MacKay Taylor's Home

Birmingham and Troy townships have a new church. The Presbyterian church, U.S.A. held its first services in the home of Rev. MacKay Taylor, minister of the new church. Mr. Taylor was graduated from McCormick Theological Seminary last May and Wooster college in 1951.

Before entering college, he spent two years in the United States Army, one year of his service being with the Army of Occupation in Japan.

The last Sunday marked the second service of the church. At the present time and until the church building is erected on Big Beaver road just east of Adams, Rev. MacKay Taylor and his wife, Ruth, have opened their home at 558 Woodstone to the congregation.

There will be a service of worship at 10:30 each Sunday and church school at 10:45. A nursery care will be provided for two to three year olds. At present the physical facilities consist of the nursery to this age group.

The church school provides for children 4 and 5 years of age, primary 6 to 8 years and juniors 9 to 11 years. Church school teachers now include four trained women Presbyterian church and will be with the new church until teachers can be supplied from the new congregation.

One service of the new congregation was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor on October 10. They welcomed the congregation and held a social hour with the new church until teachers can be supplied from the new congregation.

They also held a service on October 17. They welcomed the congregation and held a social hour with the new church until teachers can be supplied from the new congregation.

CIRCLE LUNCHEON

TRUE BEAR STORY

Mrs. Mable L. Miller is at her home on Greentree road for a week's vacation from her restaurant at 4146, near Monticello in the Upper Peninsula. Mrs. Miller has a story to tell that will match any.

For several nights there were sounds out in back of her restaurant and each following morning there were great big bear tracks around the garbage containers.

Mrs. Miller said in her one night in wait for the huge animal and when he came to forage she shot and killed him.

Glenma Miller, a senior at Vaughan school was crowned queen at one of the Cranbrook football games recently.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Plumb came out from Detroit to spend the weekend with Mr. Plumb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Plumb of Buttercut Hill drive.

WINTER RECREATION

Troy townships winter recreation program began Wednesday Oct. 27 at Troy high school gymnasium. Every Wednesday evening the gym will be open from 7:30 pm to 10:00 pm for boys from the ninth grade through the age of 17.

There will be a $2.00 registration fee for anyone over school age. All students may attend free of charge. There will be volleyball, gymnastics, games and a basketball league. The program will be supervised by Sam Taskin, one of the high school coaches.

An identical program for girls will start this evening, Nov. 4 at 7:30 pm at the Baker Junior high school gym. This program will run on Thursday mornings and includes the same age group as does the boys' program.

The Donald McKellens and the Jack Loggens of Royal Oak entertained at a shower for the shower for the Ernest J. Giles of Buttercut Hill drive, on Hallway, when the latter attended the party that the Merry Makers gave.
