Pre-School Mothers Group Plan November Meetings

Tuesday, Nov. 16, the pre-school group of the Parker school will meet to hear an informal talk by Gerald Redman, Royal Oak visiting nurse. Each mother is asked to bring a copy of her favorite recipe to exchange for benefits.

Upton school pre-school group will meet Wednesday, Nov. 17, to hear Mrs. Roger Palmer, head librarian of the Royal Oak library, discuss children's books.

COFFEE HOURS

Friday, Nov. 12 at 1:30 the society of Mrs. Lambert's second grade pupils at Upton school met to meet with their mothers. Mrs. Henry Ryan, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Dikeman for coffee.

Mrs. Burke's fourth grade mothers will meet Thursday, November 18 at 4:30 with Mrs. Harvey (Fountain) and Mrs. C. W. Jatho. Friday of next week the mothers of Mrs. Bull's second grade will meet with Mrs. Eugene Hickey and Mrs. Harold Baetzke for coffee.

NEW BROWNIES
Mrs. Earl Ford, Mrs. Donald Richardson and Mrs. Victor Smith have decided with Mrs. Richard Campbell to organize a new six brownie Scout troops at the Upton school. All new members will meet Friday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the school. Captain Ray Bowdell, announced that the following mothers also are being recruited: Mrs. E. J. Walker, Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. Kay Rowell, Mrs. Joseph Sandlock, Mrs. Walter Romanick, Mrs. Byron Steele and Mrs. Jay Judd.

NEWCOMERS
Have you met the George Jaspers of Edmond avenue? They occupy the Cyril Maxwell home, now that the Maxwells have moved out Adams road. The Jaspers came from Berkeley and have a new son, Audrey Louise, who is four years old, and Robert Stevens, who is two. Jasper, who is employed by the Westinghouse corporation, mentions high fidelity sound equipment at his hobby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald O'Clair of Edmond avenue have a new daughter, their fifth child. She is named Terri Ann. The paternal grandparents, the Clifford O'Clairs of Lathrop, look forward to meeting the new member of the family when they return from California where they are attending the national convention of the Table Toppers association. Clifford O'Clair is state president of this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin entertained the potluck group of St. James Episcopal church last Sunday evening with a supper in their home on Albert Dick Swart lead. The discussion for the Max Hornfelds, David Fullons, Scott Brown and Bill Todd.

The Woodward Hills Garden club will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at the home
