Kingswood Hockey Team Wins Praise

Hockey Play Day was held Nov. 6 at Grose Pointe Center, with Kingswood, Grose Pointe Country Day, Linger, and Lawrenceville schools participating. The morning was devoted to games between the schools and several outstanding women hockey players judged to know the All-Tri-State teams. Kingswood won all 12 matches with the exception of two that were tied.

The results were announced after lunch. Kingswood girls who made the All-Tri-State first team were Ginny Dawson, Drieka Martin, Martha McCreel, Gayle Smith, Lynn Heinrich, Gigi Underhill and Jarieta Knoblock. Sue Zimmerman, Jennie Luce, and Judy Frost made the second team, and Jerod Carter and Ely Hauser the reserve team.

The judges were unable to judge Kay Carse, the goalie, because she has not been hit upon the entire season.

Miss County Fair Choice Next Week

Miss County Fair will be chosen next Thursday by city officials and crowned the next night at the variety show. Crown will be the prettiest and most talented girl in Birmingham high school.

In the semi-finals were Julie Reynolds, Sue Allen, Jean Ruslander, Nancy Rutz, seniors; Nina Simpson, juniors; and Beverly Ford, Wendy Ross, Judy Vanhorn, Julie Winter and Jill Smith, sophomores.

The judging in the semi-finals took place last Tuesday with the selection from the contestants, who will appear in the variety show for final judging.

The judges of semi-finals were Aaron Robertson, Foster Toothacker, George Barnett, Robert Carter, and Mr. Phyllis Jackson. Judges for the finals will be Clark Griffith, Ralph Moxley, Lane Mott, Bill Williams, and Charles Kenney.

Former Birmingham high school lineman Ron Rolph has been rated as one of the best guards to play at Central Michigan college. Mt. Pleasant. Rolph is currently a strong candidate for all-interstate conference honors, and is credited with playing a major part in the success of Jim Podoley, Chippewa back, who is one of the nation's leading scorers and ground getters. Rolph is credited with many of the key blocks which have enabled Podoley to score. An honor student, Rolph serves on the student council as junior class senator.

WHEN YOU LOVE YOUR KIDS!
Owners Should Know:
1. Cleanliness is next to Godliness.
2. Fix that faucet.
3. First impressions are lasting impressions. First offering should be in order always.
4. Make your house light—adequate bulbs, raise shades and put draperies.
5. "There's a crowd"—more will love the sale.
6. Owner should retire unobtrusively while the house is being shown and not lag along.
7. Silence is golden, and music can be as noisy as Hell if not while the house is being shown.
8. Keep pets away—preferably out doors.

As, of course, you do, you want to give them the very best. Naturally that goes without saying. Here, then, is a home you want to buy. An unbeatable combination of location and quality construction. Spacious rooms — but what's more — there's plenty of them.

5 BEDROOMS — 3 BATHS — two other lavatories
Library — bleached mahogany Tremendous porch
Unusual paneled recreation room — fireplace
Large breakfast space, Dining room 15 ft x 13 ft
