

Detroit Writer Will Speak Here

"Achievements of Modern Women" will be the topic of a talk which Miss Alice Crathern of Detroit, will give Monday, Nov. 22, for members and guests of Birmingham's Altrusa club.

Miss Crathern, assistant professor of English at Wayne university, is the author of the recently published "In Detroit—Courage Was the Fashion". The book recounts the affairs of some of Detroit's pioneer women.

Mr. C. B. Lewis, chairman of the public affairs committee, will give a preliminary report of a proposed survey on "Community Resources for the Aging Citizen". The survey is to be resolved after similar efforts in some cities by Wayne university and the University of Michigan departments of sociology.

The program will follow a special 5:30 p.m. business meeting and the customary monthly dinner.

Area Residents Welcome Walter Burkemo Family

Snowshoe circle residents are welcoming Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Burkemo and their four children, Carl 6, Bobby 5, Greg 2 and Gail 10 months who came to their new home Nov. 5. The Burkemos formerly lived in Royal Oak.

Burkemo is golf professional at Franklin Hills Country club and is a partner in the Burkemo Sport Center of east side Detroit.

For hobbies Burkemo enjoys fishing and all competitive sports. Mrs. Burkemo's special hobby is swimming.

Burkemo spent several weeks this past summer in golfing competition in South America and later this month will travel south to begin the Winter Golf Tour.

Mrs. Burkemo's sister, Mrs. William Deppen, makes her home with them while her husband, who is a Colonel in the Air Force, is stationed at Nagaya, Japan.

Mrs. William Donnelly, North Miller Way, was recently designated captain of the area for the yearly Mothers' March on Polo under the auspices of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Mrs. Frances Moriarty, Hills drive, recently attended the American Petroleum Industry convention in Chicago. Moriarty is with the Aurora Gasoline company of Detroit.

PROGRESSIVE PARTY

Saturday evening, Nov. 13, was the date for the gathering of neighbors of the Gilbert Lake Estates area for their first progressive party. Those who attended were, happily, for more of the same.

The eight couples met at the Snowshoe circle home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Paul for cocktails at six o'clock. Dinner at Kingsley Inn was the next order of progression after which all went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Badger, Cottontail lane, for an evening of fun.

Those attending the party besides the hosts, already named, were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schewpke, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sleam, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jankel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen.

Boys in tub Scout Den 10 made Wolf, Bear and Lion head molds of clay at their meeting Friday, Nov. 12. They will mount these heads on wood bases to be used as plaques in their rooms at home.

Club Scouts of Den 13 finished their Indian tom-toms at their meeting Monday, Nov. 15. The boys practiced the chants for the December park meeting and began plans for their Christmas project.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Neece, East Miller Way, were Mr. and Mrs. August Bruger of Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Badger, Cottontail lane, had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna whom they entertained at the Detroit Lions' San Francisco 49ers game Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pieco, North Miller Way, left for Chicago Tuesday, Nov. 16, to attend the National Paint and Varnish convention. The Piecos will stay at the Palmer House where the convention is being held. Pieco is with the Durakon Finisher Paint Manufacturing company.
