Four-Year-Old Receives Corsage at First Party

Thursday was a big day for Deborah Dawe when she celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary with a party and received her first corsage—three baby orchids attached to a package presented by Jon Shriver.

Other guests gathering around the balloon decked table in the Dawes home on Robinwood were: Shelley Oswald, Betsy Wolf, Marcia and Janet Boettcher, Tommy Baker, Skippy Coatsworth, Linda Coombs and Peggy Browning.

Later Deborah's sister, Judy, and her friend, Carol Browning, assisted with games. The Charles Woodruff of Plymouth, Deborah's grandparents, are houseguests at the Dawes home.

William J. Steinberg of Passaic, N. J. spent last weekend with his daughter and her family, the Charles Bakers of Robinwood avenue.

Torch Funds collected have been turned in to Mrs. Thomas Gleason, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Nibschman who report the drive a great success this year.

Among the throng attending the football game in Ann Arbor Saturday were the James Livingstons of Elmwood avenue who went with the Bob Engels. Another group was Mrs. Alvin Robinson of Bembridge road accompanied by her brother and sister-in-law, the Clem Robinsons of Bloomfield Hills. Pete Olesch, son of the Hans Olesch, was also in the party.

Mrs. Richard Campbell of Robinwood avenue says that anyone who failed to buy a Girl Scout calendar from a Girl Scout may still obtain one at Mullholland's, the Federal Department store or the J. L. Hudson company in Northland.

The regular square dance sponsored by the Jane Addams Elementary PTA will be held Saturday, Nov. 20, at 8:30 p.m. Instruction will be given until 9 o'clock. Burt Hill and his four music makers will be there. Frank Loy is in charge of the dances which are held monthly.

Tickets are available for the Yale Frolic sponsored by the Upton PTA on Dec. 3. No tickets will be sold at the door. A romantic Christmas atmosphere has been promised by the decorations committee who plan to sell the holiday decorations at the end of the dance.

Mrs. Hans Olsen of Bembridge road and Mrs. Clarence Stappelm of Woodlee drive were guests of Mrs. George Wicks yesterday when she entertained her bridge club in her Huntington Woods home.

Dr. Harold Powell of the department of psychology and education at Wayne University will conduct a student forum at the regular meeting of the Jane Addams Junior high school PTA Monday, Nov. 22. The meeting has been arranged by Mrs. Richard Bush of Arlington drive.

A blood bank sponsored by all PTA groups in Royal Oak and the Red Cross will be held Tuesday, Nov. 23 in the First Baptist church, Royal Oak. Donors may come between 2-4:15 p.m. and 5-7:30 p.m.

BOOK SALE PLANNED

Mrs. Richard W. Johnson of Coalgate road and Mrs. William Allen of Grosvenor avenue have been busy collecting books this week for the annual sale arranged by the Oakland branch, American Association of University Women. The sale will be held Nov. 18-20 in the Royal Oak Public Library when 5,000 volumes are expected to go on sale.

The Walter Burkemos who formerly lived on Elmwood avenue are now in their new home at Gilbert Lake.

The Royal Oak transportation committee has recommended that Woodward avenue and Fourteen Mile road be designated as truck routes to relieve Cooper avenue of the through truck traffic which has been approaching Eton road via Cooper.

Mrs. John Adams has 35 regular students who attend the Bible class held in her home on Hampton road each Wednesday afternoon. The class is sponsored by the Christian Business Men's committee of Detroit. Most of the story telling is done with a flannel graph. Mrs. Adams receives instruction at the First Baptist church in Highland Park at a regular weekly training session.
