Education Students Practice Teaching

Among the seniors from the Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant who will participate in the institution's extern teaching program is George Landino, Birmingham high school graduate. Period of externship is from Nov. 15 until the Christmas holidays. Students participating have had practice teaching and are familiar with materials and methods of instruction. However, the college believes they are in need of practical experience in the field. They will carry a full teaching load, study record keeping, and participate in as many community activities as possible. Such teachers will extern in 63 Michigan communities. In the states of Illinois, Florida, Virginia and California, Landino will extern in Birmingham.
