WE HAVE IT 52 TIMES A YEAR . . .

During the past seven weeks, in a series of messages, we have told you about Kroger's courtesy program for store employees. This is the last of the series, but we want you to know that courtesy at Kroger is not an eight-week campaign. All of us at Kroger try to think courtesy 52 weeks a year. May we invite you to give your own comments on Kroger friendliness and courtesy? If there has ever been a time when you have not been treated with courtesy in a Kroger store we would like you to write us about it. And, of course, if you have found Kroger stores as friendly as we try to make them, we want to hear from you, too.

Our address is:
