Mary Halliday Will Marry in Honolulu

Honolulu wedding plans are being completed by Mary Halliday for her marriage to Lt. (jg) William A. Jacobson on Dec. 21. The couple will speak their vows in an informal afternoon ceremony in the Salamone chapel in Honolulu, followed by a reception at Hickam Air Force Officers club.

The bride-to-be, a first grade teacher at Barbers Point Navy Base school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis P. Halliday of Ravine. Lt. Jacobson is the son of Mrs. J. H. Jacobson of Long Beach, Calif., and the late Commodore Jacobson, USN.

Bill's sister, Mrs. Peter Kendall Cullins, formerly of California and now living in Hawaii, will act as matron of honor.

MARY is being remembered by her many friends who are honoring her with showers. Alice Price of Bloomfield court started the round of parties. Mrs. Sinclair M. Boynton and her mother, Mrs. Paul R. Schaefer, entertained at the latter's home on East Maple avenue. Both were subscription showers.

On Nov. 22 Mrs. William A. Ails of West Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, will be hostess at a linen shower. Margot Bold of Flint, Mary's roommate, and Mrs. Cullens are also giving showers in Hawaii.

Mrs. Halliday will leave for Hawaii on Nov. 24. Mr. Halliday and Mrs. Reed Dewey, aunt of the bride, will leave by air in December to join the wedding party.

Thanksgiving Plans
 A family Thanksgiving dinner is sponsored by the Robert Hallidays, 1095 Fairfax. Miss Sae Halstead will arrive at home next Wednesday evening from Rocky River, Ohio, for the holiday. Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Halliday of the Graceland Terraces.

Luncheons Precede Painters' Programs
 In announcing the 2:30 p.m. speech today by Michael P. Church, supervisor of special projects extension service, University of Michigan, Mrs. Donald Claffee, president of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters, said the luncheon would be open to the public without charge.

Church, traveling currently for the Ford Foundation, will speak in the Baldwin library auditorium on "How to See What You're Looking At."

Mrs. Claffee, Mrs. Ralph Williams, Mrs. V. L. Snyder and Mrs. Paul Averill are among the society members who will entertain at luncheons prior to the program.
