Forest Lake's Ladies Meet; Couples Dance

Forest Lake Country club events this week include its Thanksgiving dinner-dance on Saturday night and its first Ladies' day of the winter series.

Starting the ladies' day luncheon and card-playing sessions which replace the golf luncheons held during the summer months, the Friday event begins about 12 noon, continues in formal attire throughout the afternoon.

The dinner-dance, with decorations in the plentiful harvest theme, will begin at 7 p.m. in the country club lounge and dining area.

Completes Training As RC Welfare Aide

One Birmingham woman, Mrs. Frank Lamberson, was among those who completed the recent Red Cross class of social welfare aides, according to Mrs. Ruth E. Squires, director of home services.

Lessons included a survey of this type service, an introduction to Red Cross work in time of disaster and an explanation of veteran claims services.

Mrs. George McCormick, social welfare aides chairman, commented on the exceptional capabilities of the nine women who completed the course, and added a plea for current books and discuss present others to volunteer for the same and future reading.

Group Sees Marionette Construction

New member of the Birmingham puppeteers saw an exhibit Mrs. Scribner and her husband and demonstration of "how to built was set up and a few of their make a marionette" at the Puppeteers meeting Tuesday night.

The gathering was at the home of Mrs. James Scribner, 896 Hazel.

A special portable stage which the group of three performers of "The Three Little Pigs" show to be given soon. The first one is for a birthday party Nov. 29 at the home of Mrs. E. H. Lercham, 918 Gordon lane.

The "little stage" is the small production group of the Puppeteers. A few more dates for shows will be taken in the near future, but no plays will be scheduled after Dec. 15.

Special Library Display for Book Week

Special displays and visits to school groups have marked the Week in Birmingham, under the Book Fair at the library, includes more than 200 of the season's best books for young readers.

Miss Kathleen Pike, children's librarian, said circulation records show that, even in an age of television and comic books, Birmingham children are still deeply interested in good books.

to Baldwin Public Library by observation of Children's Book Week slogan, "Let's Read!"

"TO ANSWER this, the library makes every effort to bring book and child together. We try to select only the best and most interesting books from the many coming from the publishers.

"Parents interested in helping children build good home libraries are invited to come and examine the display and to talk over reading needs with me."

Guests Preview Gallery Showing

Among guests at the Little Gallery opening day's preview of its new Japanese art exhibition Sunday, were numerous art enthusiasts from the area.

Viewing the show were Mrs. Harvey Luce, Mrs. Ricco DiMarco, Mrs. Graham John Graham, Louis B. Sapington, Mrs. A. A. Wildman and Mrs. Noel Buckner.

Other guests at Mrs. Peggy DeSalle's art exhibition were Dr. Bargains galore in Want Ads.

Maybe Deals???

"Maybe" sales are notable for too-low deposits. Weak terms. Poorly drafted sales agreements. Bad contingency clauses. We don't condone them. If you want competent advice and counsel, see us and do business with truly qualified realtors of known experience and integrity.

THE GROWING YEARS

Youngsters of yours will love this home and so will you! It's all bright and light. It's a home the whole family will enjoy.

Library (pickled fish). Bookshelves. Wardrobe. Good-sized dining room for gracious, relaxed dinners. Screened porch for your summer enjoyment. Sparkling kitchen (extra large) with nook for informal snacks. Rumpus room for fun. For the photographer—a dark room. 4 good-sized bedrooms, 2 baths up, 1st floor lavatory. Terrific closets.

And even "Rover" is not forgotten... there's a dog run.

Quartern School is only a block away. The location is prime Harrowgate, of course.
