Lathrup Girls Dancing In Detroit's Program

Spanish dancing has held the attention of three Lathrup girls, and their interest will take two of them tomorrow night to Detroit's International Institute.

The city's annual event features dances of all nationalities, and the three girls were invited to fill out the nation representing Spain in the program. Linda Flemming and Jean Norton are taking part in the program, but Carol had previously accepted Western High school's activities to be in a variety show Friday and Saturday nights.

Wearing their own colorful costumes, the girls will do the Spanish fan dance in their more formal gowns with many fabric flourishes, and later change to their peasant costumes for a gypsy dance from Spain.

All students of Theodore Smith for dancing instruction, the girls have been dancing over three years, and all teach their own classes as well.

Under the 18-year-old limit for Cecchetti teachers certified, the girls are active in the Junior Cecchetti council of America. Carol will be president and Jean second vice president of the junior council's Michigan chapter that meets in Detroit, when new officers take over in January.

Carol attends Our Lady of Mercy high school in Detroit. Linda is a junior high student at Southfield High school, and Jean goes to St. Ann's of the Little Flower school in Royal Oak.

Carol last week gave a benefit performance of the Young Adults group of the Precious Blood parish in Detroit.

The Square Dance Supper club will meet on Saturday, Nov. 20 at the Southfield High school, chairman this month is Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gortley, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Paulus, Jr. and Mrs. George Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Macracken, Mr. and Mrs. John Kraw and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gleason. Buffet dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by an evening of square dancing.

PARENTS VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Hobbs of California drive entertained as weekend guests Mrs. Hobbs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben A. Smith of Rocky River, Ohio. On Saturday evening Smith attended a luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club.

LEE OLSEWSKI

Lee Olsewski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Olsewski of 6550 Wylsall road, may soon become a cadet colonel, that is, an honorary cadet colonel.

The 17-year-old girl was voted a finalist last week in the Air Force ROTC "Swordboard" contest at the University of Detroit.

She was selected by 575 U. of D. cadets. Other finalists were five other girls, with the rank of honorary cadet going to the winner.

THE TITLE CARRIES with it an 18 inch trophy, several Detroit television and radio appearances, a WAF officer's uniform, and a place of honor at the University's Military ball on December 10, and at the annual Field Day and prize-time ball ceremonies set for next May.

June 74, graduate of Immaculate High school in Detroit, the blue-eyed blonde was on commitment for the school's cadet corps. She received a scholastic award from the National Latin society at the school.

A freshman in the U. of D. arts and sciences college, Lee is majoring in education. She hopes to teach English or Biology. She is a staff writer on the school's student newspaper, the Varsity News.
