THESE TRAYS, made by Mrs. Wynne Handy, will be one of the featured items when Monica guild holds its annual bazaar from 1-5 p.m., Nov. 20. Among the localites serving on the committee are Mrs. Rodney Lockwood, Miss Margaret Marr and Mrs. Hugh Stevenson, who pause to admire some of Mrs. Handy's work. Trays have beautifully executed designs worked into the aluminum which Mrs. Handy buys in large sheets, cutting and shaping it herself. The bazaar will be held in the N. Woodward Congregational church, Detroit, funds going to scholarships and charity. (Eccentric Photo)

Mystery, Tradition To Mark November Cranbrook Concert

Traditionally, mystery surrounds the Nov. 30 concert of the Cranbrook Music Guild.

Following a long-established custom, the Guild will present the current winner of the Grinnell Opera award, a young man or woman, as yet unknown.

Again clinging to tradition, the winner will be announced by Mrs. Arthur B. Tilton, chairman of awards, on Sunday night at the end of the opera season.

To assure itself of the services of this outstanding young musician, Cranbrook Music Guild has an arrangement whereby each entry is committed to this program, should he or she win.

Each agrees to fill this engagement, which comes soon after the opera finals, before leaving for any assignment with the New York City Opera company.

TRADITION IS still a governing factor in the selecting of the assisting artist who is always a young and exceptionally talented pianist.

Selected for this year's "traditional" program is Irene Scheidmann, in private life, Mrs. Gordon Nugent of Graefield court.

A native of Vienna, she studied piano at the New Vienna conservatory under Prof. Clara Schweiger. Later, at the State Akademie of Music, she studied under professors Ferd Rebay, Hans Weber and Friedrich Wuercr.

SINCE 1945 she has been listed as the youngest member of the piano faculty at the Akademie. On leave of absence, she came to this country on an exchange professorship and taught at Mission House college in Wisconsin and Bradley university, Peoria, Ill.

In 1950 a period of trans-Atlantic travel began for Mrs. Scheidmann, when she returned to Austria. A year later she was back in the States, spending 1951-52 in study at Juilliard. She was married to Gordon Nugent in 1952 and returned to Europe, and that fall, back again to live in New York City. The couple moved to Birmingham last year.

Several concert appearances have been made here and in Europe since her debut in 1945, including soloist with the Detroit Symphony under Valter Poole.

AFTER THREE concerts at Albion college last season, she was made an honorary member of Sigma Alpha Iota. Currently she is studying with Mischa Kottler.

A coffee hour will follow the 8:30 program in Cranbrook House, with Mrs. Maurice Garabrant and Mrs. Lloyd Kemp presiding. Assisting will be Mrs. F. G. Weed, Mrs. S. V. Norton, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Walter F. Skinner, Mrs. John H. Abbott, Mrs. Rogers L. Marquis, Mrs. McKnight Parker and Mrs. William S. Graham. Coffee hour chairman is Mrs. Martin Archangeli.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Michigan's North Woods Beckons Franklin Hunters

Dr. Duane B. Larkins has been hunting up Mt. Pleasant way with his son Jim. Jack Wreford is deer hunting with friends at Mio, and are staying at Lost Creek ranch. W. K. Griffen is hunting near Oscoda. Ralph Woodburn is hunting near Lewiston, where the Woodburns have a cabin.

The Donald Hackers, of Colony Hill road, attended the U. of M.-Michigan State contest at Ann Arbor last Saturday in the company of Dr. and Mrs. James Riley of Birmingham.

The Franklin Community association has planned a Father and Son football party on the evening of Dec. 5 to watch the Detroit Lions play the Eagles. For information phone Claude Cook, John Lackner or Jack Roberts.

"Ramshackle Inn", a mystery farce in three acts presented by the Franklin Village Players under the sponsorship of the community association last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, was a success in every respect.

The SRO sign was out each night and the audience was most receptive and apparently greatly amused. The Players' spring production will go into rehearsal after the first of the year.

Mrs. Leo Miller was hostess at luncheon yesterday at her home on Franklin Court, with Mrs. Arthur Roehm, Mrs. William Hauser and Mrs. John Reinhart as her guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Larkins will spend Thanksgiving at Mt. Pleasant with their son, daughter-in-law and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. James Larkins and baby Jimmy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Skeels and their children Richard and Ellen will spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zillmer, in Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, of Scenic Drive, announce the birth of a son, William Owen, on Oct. 29. He weighed 8 pounds, 15 ounces upon arrival.

NOVEMBER'S CHILDREN

Lynn Dragovich was 10 year-old Nov. 4 and Cathy Whiting be-came 7 years old on November 5. A happy birthday is coming up for Barbara Brown who will be 10 Nov. 26.

Franklin's village marshal, Dan Brown, probably sports the fancest emergency vehicle in these parts, a hardtop convertible, portholes and all, in a bright red that comes near to outclassing the revolving beacon ray light on the car top.

Marshal Brown, who is also an Oakland County deputy sheriff, is kept quite busy converting the outsiders who come speeding down school hill and through the village in defiance of the 25 m.p.h. speed limit posted in the congested village center.

Higher Lights

Lighting on commercial parking lots now can be 12 feet above the ground, according to a zoning ordinance amendment adopted by the Birmingham city commission. Previous limitation was eight feet.

Audit Approved

Auditing of the city of Birmingham accounts for 1954 will be done by Hogan, Jaycox & Harding of Detroit, the firm which has done the work for the past several years.

With all its power the accent is on STYLE!
Fresh, modern styling sets the pace for the longer, lower, thinner, 1955 De Soto. Style in the gleaming lustre of its new grille...along the clean, taut body lines...in the massive New Horizon full wraparound windshield...plus fresh, elegant style extends inside, too. Luxury in the feel of new fabrics—hearty tweeds and soft leathers—all blending with the gay interior colors of the homes. De Soto's "Dual Cockpit" instrument panel is modern, beautiful, safe. The Oriental gear selector lever is mounted on the dash. And to power the '55 De Soto are two new V-8 engines: 200 h.p. engine in the new Fireflite series and 185 horsepower in the Firedome series—now selling at a new, low price.
