 "A party platform is a mighty important consideration," said one statesman.

"Yes," replied the other, "a party platform in politics is a good deal like a bunker in golf. The rules require it but you show your skill in avoiding it."

Bit O' Verse

TO A LAD

He's such a darling little lad,
 Sometimes good and sometimes bad,
 But good or bad, we love him so
 And know into a man he'll grow.
 He's young just such a little while
 And when I see his happy smile,
 I think of all he has to learn
 For life can sometimes be so stern.
 Oh may he have the grace to take
 Life at its best and never make
 When things go wrong and courage ebbs
 And seeming gloom around him spreads.
 May he be big and strong and kind
 And have those virtues of the mind,
 That rise above the petty thing,
 Then life will be eternal spring.

Walnut Lake Dens Plan Year's Work In 1st Meetings

Den mothers, members of the committee, the cubmaster and assistant cubmasters of Pack No. 41 attended a meeting at the home of Committee Chairman Robert Smith, on Eastmore, Walnut Lake, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9. Plans for the coming year were formulated at this time.

DEN NO. 2 STARTED off its season at den mother Mrs. Robert Kreuz's home, on Wycliffe drive. This den is working on a kit for the December pack meeting.

DEN NO. 4 MET on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom. Mrs. Fred Hamilton is den mother, and under her direction the boys held an election, giving the title of Denner to Margie White, assistant Denner to Roy Hamilton and keeper of the Buckskin to Michael Latham.

UNWRITTEN LAWS
 A green signal never gives the motorist a right to run down a pedestrian—especially if he is trying to finish a crossing he actually started on his green signal.
 For a motorist, encased in a ton and a half of steel, to insist on his right-of-way rights over a 130 pound woman on foot is like a big bully threatening to step some small youngster.

BIRTHS
 A son, Clifford Lee Weikal, was born Oct. 25 to Mr. AND MRS. DAVID WEIKAL, 1200 Graefield road.

LET HIM FINISH CROSSING THE STREET
 Remember, when the pedestrian starts his crossing on a green signal he has a right to finish his crossing on the red when he is in the pedestrian crosswalk in front of you. And remember, a pedestrian is rarely a motorist before he gets into his car or after he leaves it.
