BARBARA DROEGE MI 6-0431

Among the huge crowd last Saturday who watched the University of Michigan eleven take a giant step towards the Rose Bowl game by defeating Michigan State were the Albert Yosts, of Parkstone lane, and a group of their friends. After the game the whole gang returned to the Yosts' for cocktails before dinner at Forest Lake Country club.

A little hoarse from cheering but enjoying the whole day were the Frank Koozlers, from Grand Rapids, the James Caldwell, the Fred Schoenly, the Ben Stephenson, the George Witenkos and the Addison Kirbys.

Mrs. Russell D. Hughes was welcomed last Thursday at a bridge luncheon at the Hughes home on Chula Vista lane. Seated around the luncheon table which was all decked out in Fall colors with centerpiece of mums and oak leaves were Mrs. George Odell, Mrs. Searle Hendee, Mrs. William McKay, Mrs. C. Zevler, Mrs. Martin Campbell, Mrs. Fred Stoffer and Mrs. Paul Droege.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS
Newcomers of two weeks' duration are the Edgar F. Waits of 1281 Foxchase, who moved here from North Roseville. Wait is recently retired from Ford Motor company after 18 years' service. The Waits have three sons, William, who is now in his senior year at the University of Michigan, and two married sons, Edgar, Tuesday night at the Robert Beach Vista lane. Seated around the luncheon table which was all decked out in Fall colors with centerpiece of mums and oak leaves were Mrs. George Odell, Mrs. Searle Hendee, Mrs. William McKay, Mrs. C. Zevler, Mrs. Martin Campbell, Mrs. Fred Stoffer and Mrs. Paul Droege.

And then, too, we have the Robert O. Gibbons who live at 1821 Crosswick. The Gibbons came from Detroit where Gibbons is in the sales department at the E. L. Jacobs company. There are two younger Gibbons, Charles, 11, and Robert, 6, Robert is an avid hunter and fisherman but says the fish and deer are safe this year since there's quite a bit of work around a new house.

You could almost hear Santa's sleigh bells at that party last

Comedy Program At Barnum School

Barnum dramatic club members will present their annual fall performance tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Barnum auditorium. There will be two comedies—'The Merry Road' presented by the eighth grade and 'The Merry Road' presented by the seventh grade. The seventh grade's play is a one-act comedy, 'The Initiation,' by James Jackson. The eighth grade's play is 'The Merry Road,' by Jim Dixon, Donald Van Horn, Bill Nien, John Martin, Bob Slatz, and other public members.

New Brownies

Monday, Nov. 15 was a Brownie letter day for Brownie Troop 396 at Bloomfield Village school. That afternoon a group of 26 little girls officially became Brownies in their investiture ceremony. Officiating were Mrs. Walter Simons, leader, and Mrs. C. C. Pritchard and Mrs. Peter Russ, co-leaders.

Guess who has arrived?

A little bundle, 8 lbs. 11 1/2 ozs., and his name is William Marshall Dawe, Jr. Billy made his entrance Saturday morning, just twelve minutes

FARMER'S FRIEND

MICHIGAN'S agriculture produces approximately 10 per cent of the State's income. And to the Michigan farmer, motor transport is next in importance to the land itself. Over 80,000 trucks are hard at work on Michigan's farms—vital tools in all phases of farm work.

Not only are trucks indispensable to the farmer in the successful operation of his farm—trucks also form a vital link to the outside world.

The town or shopping center where the farmer does his buying is stocked by trucks and trailers which operate round the clock to bring him and his family—swiftly and economically—an ever wider selection of the necessities and luxuries of life.
