

30-Minute Meters Delayed 30 Days

Birmingham's 20 new 30-minute meters will not go into operation until Jan. 1.

Commissioners agreed with several downtown merchants that the imminent Christmas-shopping season might not be too good a time to spring a parking-change on motorists. Original starting date was Dec. 1.

Located adjacent to street intersections, alleys and crosswalks, these 20 meters will be identified by their green color.

Xmas Trees Again To Be Sold By Y

The Birmingham YMCA will again have its Y's Men's Club selling balsam and pine Christmas trees from December 5 to December 23 at 400 East Lincoln. Proceeds from the sale will go to further the youth program of the Y.

During the past three years the Y's Men have purchased a bus, directed and equipped a craft shop and given 100 boys and girls "Y" memberships as a result of their money raising activities.

Boys and girls from the Y club groups will sell tickets for the purchase of trees and thus raise money for their own individual activities. These youngsters will be identified by letters from the YMCA and literature about the sale.

Trees will come from Nova Scotia and Michigan and vary in height from 4 to 9 feet. Hours for selling have been listed as from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. with prices the same as last year.

Troop B-25 Scouts Hold Honor Court

Troop B-25 held a Court of Honor before parents, relatives and friends at its meeting on November 18th.

The highlight of the court was the presentation of the Star Scout Award by Neighborhood Commissioner Armand L. Islette to Scout Dale Hockett who had earned Merit Badges for firemanship, electricity, cooking, woodworking and home repair.

Merit badges were awarded also to Scouts Mike Dyer—earning and soil and water conservation; Terry LeTourneau—canoeing, cooking, and soil and water conservation; Bill White—cooking and soil and water conservation; Bob Dickinson—cooking, and soil and water conservation; Bob Robb—nature, camping, cooking, and canoeing; Danny Rodgers—canoeing, and cooking; and Joe Obery—swimming, life saving, and canoeing.

Advancements in scouting were rewarded by First Class badge presentations to Scouts Bob Dickinson, Jim McPartlin, Bob Kinney, and Joe Obery, and Second Class awards to Scouts Tom Woodworth and Bert Holland.

Another group of scouts received their badges of office. The insignia of senior patrol leader was given to Rich Tangeman and patrol leader bars were presented to Bert Hockett, Bob Kinney, Danny Rodgers, and Bob Holland.

A demonstration of scoutcraft by each patrol augmented the court of honor.

Delay Decision On Parking Area

Resistant opposition to creating a parking district at the rear of a proposed business development at Southfield and 14 Mile has caused a two-week delay in the city commission's decision on a rezoning.

Because of the opposition, the commission needs a three-fourths vote to approve the change, but Commissioner William Roberts was absent and Commissioner Ivan Heter declined to vote because he has represented the subdivision association involved.

A lawyer representing one property owner claimed a subdivision restriction would prevent establishment of a parking lot.
