

SO THAT FLOWERS may border the grounds at Beverly school, garden club women and school children are uniting their efforts. Some 2000 bulbs have been donated by the Beverly Hills garden club and here two members, Mrs. Alvin Knorr, left, and Mrs. Henry H. Jones guide two of the students who last week planted the bulbs. Pam Jones holds some of the future plants, while Robert Townsend does the spading.

The MAN YOUR DOCTOR DEPENDS ON
Doctors write prescriptions with the fullest confidence in the pharmacist's professional ability and in his preparedness to compound the medicine exactly as prescribed. They depend upon the pharmacist to maintain full, fresh supplies of quality prescription drugs. They look to him for the knowledge and skill necessary to dispense prescribed drugs accurately and safely. They expect him to provide their patients with prompt service and to supply the prescribed medicine at a fair and reasonable price. Because doctors know they can depend upon you, they often advise—"Have this filled at Wilson's."
