Farrell Coming

Howard Farrell, former resident of Birmingham who moved to Whittier, Calif., about six years ago, is arriving today to visit J. Arthur Evans at his Gieghary road home. He will remain about a week.

MARTHA LIPTON

Metropolitan Star Next Concert Guest

The second in the current series of concerts sponsored by the Community Concert association of south Oakland county will feature Martha Lipton, Metropolitan Opera mezzo-soprano.

The concert will be at 8:15 p.m., Nov. 8, in the Royal Oak high school auditorium.

Miss Lipton, an American-born, American-trained singer has been termed "the most versatile artist of the Met."

In spite of her youth, she has sung almost 40 roles in 30 Metropolitan operas. This includes, moreover, four languages and the works of 20 composers.

Around she has been tremendously popular, making her fifth appearance in Europe this year. She has participated in the Holland and Edinburgh festivals, the Benjamin Britten English Opera company and the Vienna State Opera.

State Bar Member Delivers Lecture

Mrs. Pearl B. Newcomb, councilor at large, Bloomfield Hills, will give the second of a group of lectures being sponsored by the Berkeley high school library in connection with the Adult Education program at 8 p.m. today.

Mrs. Newcomb, who is a member of the State Bar association and the Oakland County Bar association, will discuss "Estate Planning." She will also show a film on "Living Under the Law" through the courtesy of the Oakland Bar association. A question and answer period will follow.

Honor Founders

Gamma Phi Beta's Founders' day event is set for Nov. 11 at the home of Mrs. Fred Gould, on Foxcroft. Mrs. Robert Kipatrik is providing entertainment in form of a white elephant sale. Hostesses are Mrs. James Roan Ewing, Mrs. Stanley Saunders and Mrs. Cozart Robertson for the 8 p.m. dinner.

Ushers Hold Dance

Ushers club of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church will sponsor a dance Saturday, Nov. 6, beginning at 9 p.m. in the Kof C hall, 406 East Fourth, Royal Oak. The dance is planned as a get-together for the parishioners, however, the public is invited.

Advance tickets may be obtained from Russell Cullen, 18271 Beverly road, or at the door.

Benefit Breakfast

Nov. 11, known as "Veterans Day" will be observed by Birmingham MUMS with a 10 a.m. donation Stanley breakfast at the home of Mrs. John Weirath, Sr., 2930 Mt. Vernon. Proceeds are for hospitalized veterans.
