Entertains Past Matrons of Highland Park Eastern Star

Mrs. Henry Croteau honored the past matrons of the Eastern Star (Highland Park Chapter 410) Tuesday, October 26, with a dessert luncheon at her home, 7335 East Greenwich drive.

It was the Chapter's annual meeting and the election of officers made Myra Dunlap the new president; Hester Young, vice president; Bernice Dismore, secretary and Betty Dickles, treasurer.

Those who voted the girls into office were Pearl Armitage, Mable Platt, Ethel Hoshorn, Emma Phares, Ruby Williams, Helen Shippe, Ellen Lawrence, Florence Woodport, Sadie Weigle and Julie Sander. Mrs. Croteau's mother, Mrs. Small, was a guest for the occasion.

Gone (and who can blame them) is the Ronald R. Bevers of 4750 Wedgewood drive. They took off Thursday and were joining friends for a month's visit in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., with every good intention.

The Wights are in the United States on a business trip for the Standard Oil company and while Wright was tending to business, Mrs. Wright tended to pleasure with a week's visit at the Farrish home.

OVERSEAS VISITORS

Over several hot cups of good Swedish coffee, the Victor Farrish, 7410 West Greenwich drive, entertained intently while Mr. Farrish's sister, Mrs. D. L. Wright, gave an account of her life in Copenhagen, Denmark and her visits to Norway, Sweden and the Continent.

Mrs. Farrish was especially interested in Sweden since "she's been a Peterson" before she was married.

To offset the visits of witches and goblins this past weekend, we had a real nice visitor in the Berkshires. She was Mrs. David B. Falconer, Sr., from Seattle, who spent the weekend at the David B. Falconer home on Jackson Park drive.

As an active member of the PTA for many years, Mrs. Falconer really enjoyed attending the annual PTA Fair, Friday night at the Bloomfield Village school.

WASHINGTON TRIP

The Ray D. Michaels of Parkhurst drive are still talking about their recent trip to Washington—and no wonder—they saw just about everything there was to see. When they arrived in Washington, they put their car in the garage and busied, staved and hoofed it all over the place.

One of the highlights of their trip was catching the filming of a movie in front of the Capitol building. It will be released by 20th Century-Fox and its title, "The Man Named Peter," stars Richard-Toll, an English actor.

Then there was Arlington cemetery, Mt. Vernon, Williamsburg, and perhaps most awe-inspiring of all was their trip to dawn along the Skyline drive in Virginia. It was beautiful, they said, and at that early hour they saw many wild animals including a bobcat.

Mrs. John J. Kelley, 3985 West Lincoln drive, was thrilled to have her sister, Mrs. Donald Anderson and five-year old niece, Mary, from Arcadia, Calif., as houseguests recently. Mrs. Anderson, a former resident of Bloomfield Village, spent a week at the Kelley home and she was honored guest one evening when the William McElitties, the William S. Latts, the Al Waters, Richard Smith, the W. S. Wilsons and Mrs. Jo Latta, a houseguest of the Wilsons, came to call.

Mrs. Kelley thought that Mrs. Latta looked familiar and it was soon discovered that they were childhood chums some years ago in Akron, Ohio!
