Six-Year-Old Newcomer Shares Unique Birthday Cake at Party

Among our many newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Saldeen at 16784 Birwood, having come here from Battle Creek a month ago. They have a daughter, Jeanie Lou, who was six years old recently. She invited her two newly-found girl friends, Jeannie Hansen and Cheryl Minch, to a little party. Even though the party was small in number, Mrs. Saldeen made a beautiful cake for the occasion.

One of Jeanie Lou's favorite story book dolls was used as the center of the cake and a huge, five-layer cake skirt was built around her. Fringing ruffles and bows and rosettes trimmed the skirt to make it a real work of art. Saldeen is with the tractor and implement division of the Ford Motor company in Birmingham. His favorite pastime is photographing.

family is attending the First Methodist church in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. John Janos moved into their new home at 16997 Margaret the first week in September. They came from Detroit and Janos is with the board of education there. He is a graduate of Wayne University. They have two daughters, Christine who is two and a half and Karen, ten months old.

At 15741 Amberst are former Detroiters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson and ten-year-old son, James, a graduate student at Michigan. Watson is with General Motors and enjoys hunting and fishing in his leisure time. They have a bird and he has been said the birds are rather scarce this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy H. Parry formerly of Kansas City, Mo., with a brief stop-off in Detroit, are now residing at 16030 13 Mile and they are members of the First Christian church.

Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Gentile and son, Melvin Jr., have been living in their new home at 16280 Birchwood for about two months. Melvin is eight years old and in the third grade at Our Lady Queen of Mary's school.

Dr. Gentile is an associate doctor at the Art Centre hospital. He and his wife are expected to arrive home by plane today from Dallas, Texas where they have been attending a golfing convention. Mrs. Gentile's sister, Mrs. Francis Brooks and four-year-old son, Ronald, of Allen Park, have been staying with Melvin while his parents were away. The family is probably in transit for their holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Irwin are newcomers at 16088 Birwood. Irwin is with customer research at General Motors and Mrs. Irwin works for National Coal company. Irwin is a commercial artist and is free-time enjoys painting, especially landscapes. His active hobby is golf.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Grimm, Jr. moved to 17170 Beverly road from Detroit just about a month ago. They have two daughters, Cheryl six years old and a first grader at Beverly school and Gail, five.

Grimm is with the Perry C. Miller Contracting company and the family belongs to Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church. Grimm is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and enjoys golf and boating. Mrs. Grimm is devoting all her spare time to finishing up of a goodie point for her dining room chairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn P. Hollowell are the new residents at 15618 Kirkshire. They too, have been newcomers for a little over a month and the children are all in school. Lynn is 11 years of age and goes to Barham, Marc, Irene and Paul are 7, 6, and 2 respectively, and all attend Pierce school. Hollowell is a home designer and is in business for himself. The family belongs to Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

While Mr. and Mrs. William A. Romeser of Toledo, Ohio, were looking for just the right location and in the right home, they rented a house in Oak Park but now are settled at 16137 Wetherby and just love it.

They have a two-year-old son, Rocky and are attending the First Methodist church in Birmingham. Romeser is with the Sun Oil company and belongs to both their golf and bowling leagues. His employer is a Purdue graduate and his wife a graduate of Women's College of University of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Merz and sons, Steven and John, are new residents at 16207 Wetherby. Steven is 11 years old and a 4th grader at Baldwin while John is three years old. Merz is a tool engineer for National Twist Drill in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Bender and family moved to 31741 Arlington from Detroit in August. Bender is a buyer for Beecher, Peck, and Lewis. Their son, Chris, was 16 recently and is a junior at Birmingham high school. Chris and his father get as much hunting and fishing in as they possibly can and they both bowl in their church league. Bonnie Gae is nine years of age and a fourth grade student at Beverly school. She has joined the newly organized Bonnie Troop. Bonnie is also very pleased that her mother is one of her room mothers. Only Lee, just four and likes to play and sing.

The family are members of the Gloria Dei church in Detroit and are all very active members. Mrs. Bender is president of the Women's club and Bender is financial secretary of the church board.

At present all of their free time is being devoted to the forthcoming musical show which the church is giving. Bender will be one of the "mom and dad" team. Mr. and Mrs. Bender are in one of the dance routines. Mrs. Bender's father,

Howard Hiley of Auburn, Ind., is visiting them for a few weeks.

The Ushers club of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church is holding its first dance this Saturday at the K of C hall in Royal Oak. Everyone is welcome.

GS TROOP 428
Girl Scout Troop 428 of Holy Name School attended a church in a body, Monday morning before they were taken through a commercial bakery by their leader, Mrs. Bernard Lourin. The Beverly Hills girls attending were Patricia Hartner, Kathleen Kelly, Mary E. Seibert, Margaret Young, Christine DeRosier and Kathleen Quinan.

New School Plans Told at PTO Meet

Construction and enrollment in schools was discussed at the recent executive council meeting of the Bloomfield Hills Parent Teacher organization at Vaughan school.

School board member Merrill Bates told of new school plans, while Supt. Eugene Johnson talked on problems of more children enrolling. National Education Week plans were sold by principals, Richard Sufess and Mrs. Hazel McGuff.

New officers of the PTO units were introduced and coordination of the groups set. Monthly meeting dates are being staggered. Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown served cider and doughnuts at the meeting's conclusion.

Philomene Meeting

The Philomene club will meet with Mrs. Margaret Smith at her home, 907 Pine, at 1 p.m. Nov. 9 for dessert and sewing.
