LAST OF THE BARRICADES were lifted today on the newly-widened pavement on W. Maple between Linden and Glenhurst and detour-weary motorists will now have a full sweep through Birmingham's west side. The months-long project was hampered greatly by the recent Detroit cement-strike. Witnessing the clearing of the street (left to right) are City Manager Donald C. Egbert, Oakland County Road Commissioners Sol Lomerson and Lee O. Brooks, County Road Engineer-Manager Leon V. Helmap, Mayor Charles R. French and City Engineer L. R. Gare. Grading is nearly finished on the boulevard area abutting the street and the city now will begin landscaping along the area between roadway and sidewalk. (Eccentric Photo)

RICHARD T. MANSFIELD, 531 Westchester Way, will be the discussion leader for the Oct. 16 discussion forum meeting of the Detroit Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants. Subject of the meeting will be "Budget Control of Manufacturing Operations." Mansfield is director of operations analysis section of General Motors.

A COMPLETE PRINTING SERVICE FROM TYPESETTING TO MAILING

FORMERLY THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC PRINTING DEPARTMENT

When the first train rolled into Chicago on Grand Trunk's own steel three-quarters of a century ago, it fulfilled the dream of the pioneer railroad builders who set up the first 13-mile section, 41 years before.

In the years since Grand Trunk has inaugurated many improvements in railroading, while spreading a network of rails wider and wider to serve the growing needs of the Middle West.

The spirit that drove the road's founders still lives in the people of the Grand Trunk. The same forward thinking that activated their forefathers shows in the magnificent new equipment recently ordered by the Grand Trunk Canadian National at a cost of $58,000,000.

When next you travel to Chicago or to anywhere in Canada or New England, relax in the new kind of luxury living this new equipment offers you . . . featuring modern coaches, new type bedrooms, restrooms, parlor and dining cars . . . enjoy Grand Trunk's superb cuisine, the hospitality of the railroaders who man this friendly line.
