Torch Drive Committees Ready for 1954 Campaign

The United Foundation Torch Drive will get under way in the Franklin area on Tuesday, Oct. 19, following a kick-off luncheon at the Cranbrook gymnasium at 12:30, Oct. 18 for workers from Franklin, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Bernard Magruder, chairman of the local organization, met with her captains at her home last week for basic planning, and again at the Community church yesterday to hear Mrs. Roland Quinn, campaign director for Birmingham, discuss the drive. This year's goal is higher than ever before, in part because Red Cross needs must be covered by this one drive. There will be no separate Red Cross campaign next spring.

The northeast section of Franklin will be collected by Mrs. Milo Dean, Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. Ernest Housington, Mrs. Richard Kern, Mrs. Denny Converse, Mrs. G. F. Morris, Mrs. W. W. Borestein, Mrs. J. A. Cotter and Mrs. N. E. S. P. B. Doherty, Mrs. Earl Taylor, Mrs. G. T. Willie, Mrs. Homer Robinson, Mrs. John Scolaro is captain.

C. W. Duff, Mrs. Edward Green, Mrs. C. Piskard and Mrs. Stanley Krentel, Mrs. Phil Van Dyke is captain.

The Meadway Lake-Orinoco Circle area will be covered by Mrs. Dale Brubaker and Mrs. Chester Jankowski, with Mrs. Stephen Petis as captain.

NATURE HIKE

Franklin branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden club will take to the country next Monday for a lunch and nature hike. The excursion will be to Haven Hill, a 5,200 acre hunting, fishing and general recreational center in the Highland recreational area.

Those lunching at Haven Hill lodge are to meet at the Franklin Community church at noon to travel in an auto caravan. Others are to meet at the church at 1 p.m. A conducted hike will leave from the lodge at 2 p.m. Ladies in the Franklin area, not members, but who would like to partake in this excursion should contact Mrs. William Jahsmann.

The Franklin Garden club met last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fisher on Wellington road. Prof. Chapman of the Highland State college, talked on the "history of plants."

PTA ACTIVITIES

The series of "coffeees" and teas being held by room mothers to acquaint the mothers of the Franklin school pupils with one another continues. Mrs. Armand Qualters served coffee at her home on Woodside drive yesterday morning to the mothers of the morning kindergarten group. Afternoon kindergarten class mothers were the guests of Mrs. John Longley Tuesday afternoon at her home on Bingham road.
