

Juvenile Delinquency was topic of Judge Nathan J. Kaufman's talk at the Adams PTA meeting Monday night at the school. The judge of probate court in charge of juvenile court spoke from experiences that have made him a recognized national authority on the prevention of juvenile delinquency. On the club's agenda is the Oct. 22 square dance, starting a new series similar to last year's. Again, instruction period starts at 8:30 and regular dancing at 9 p.m.

Russel P. Swaney, son of the Russel A. Swaney of Redding road, has been appointed cadet lieutenant colonel in the air force reserve officers training corps at the University of Michigan. He is a senior in the engineering school.

In announcing the date selected for the annual Pierce PTA fair, Charles Mason, president, said the October meeting would be cancelled.

The next session will be held Nov. 18, an open house when parents will meet the teachers and see displays of the work done in classes.

The fair date will be Oct. 22 with the customary allotment of proceeds toward the purchase of equipment not supplied by the school system. This has, in the past, included records, books, visual aid equipment and a public address system.

This year's fair will be under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Henglemann, mother vice president. An evening of entertainment is planned for the entire family.

BOOTHS WILL feature canned and baked goods, candy, popcorn, handwork, plants and "white elephants." Game rooms, a fish pond, cherry tree and the ever-popular Country Store are also planned.

A fortune teller will be on hand along with Beauty and the Beast. An added feature this year will be a weight guessing stand.

Dinner will be served in the cafeteria with seating at 6 and 7 p.m. Tickets will be available that evening. A snack bar will be maintained throughout the day.

A comedy variety show will highlight the evening. Three acts are scheduled, including a tramp clown, two jugglers and an acrobatic team.
