Back from Europe To Begin Classes

Back in Birmingham after a summer spent in Europe, Miss Sara Strengell announces the reopening of her Teenage Theater Workshop and the formation of additional classes.

The Workshop will again meet in the Community House, with the first session Oct. 16. An addition this year will include professional coaching for adults with radio and TV work if the demand warrants.

The new classes will be held Wednesdays from 1-6 p.m. in the Y.M.C.A. building. This will include rhythm dancing for children and adults, planned for groups of 10 persons. A special class for housewives on "figure control, beauty, general health and diet" is also planned.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

three married sons, Rowland III of Redford, Frank of Detroit and Charles, who lives in Oak Park. They have five grandchildren, four boys and a girl who has the distinction of being the first girl born into the Starr family in 97 years. Grandma and Grandpa Starr agree that she was worth waiting for.

You can imagine my surprise when telephoning Floyd W. Snyder to find that his phone was mounted on a tree! It's this way Snyder is just starting to build his home on a 1 1/2 acre plot on Eastlady drive. He owns a service station in Oak Park and his associates often want to reach him at his new home—hence the tree phone. Snyder is active in a Kiwanis organization. His hobby is flying which he started in 1928 and today owns a private plane. All the building processes dovetail the way they should. Snyder hopes to spend Christmas at his new address!

Dr. and Mrs. Otto Grob of Parkstone lane are planning a party for Sunday, Oct. 17. They have invited about 60 old friends to an open house that day

At the University of Michigan, The Yandell moved here from Detroit several months ago and they like us already. Yandell is in the accounting department at General Motors and is a Masonic Lodge member.

Other Detroiters joining us Berkshire residents are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Toscani who call the house at 32765 Eastlady "home". There are two Tesmar offspring, both daughters—Catherine, 17, who attends Birmingham high school and Christine, 13, who is enrolled at Holy Name school. Tesmar's profession is project engineering at Fisher Body.

And then we have the Rowland H. Starrs, who have lived in the nearby vicinity for 13 1/2 years but they are new to us at 7835 Old Mill road. Starr operates the Starr Hill Treating firm. They have to talk over good times and to share in their celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary. Dainty hors d'oeuvres, cookies, punch and coffee will be served throughout the afternoon and evening.

Friday, Oct. 8 was bridge club day for Mrs. Timothy Cruick and Mrs. Harry Rogac. It was fun to show off her new home to friends anxious to see it. Those who took the tour were Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. John Hanley, Mrs. Robert Ritter, Mrs. Richard P. Thibault, Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Harry Rogac.
