VIRGINIA DETWILER MI 4-3420

Election of permanent officers was the first item Tuesday night at Beverly school's second PTA meeting, held last Thursday night. Newly elected officers are John E. Tompkins, president; Bill Pease, fatherly vice president; R. F. Bany, secretary; Mrs. Jack Mead, recording secretary; Mrs. Vincent S. Madison, corresponding secretary; George Murphy, treasurer, and Ann Sumera and Bill Alden, teacher vice presidents.

After Edison Stephens, president of the Birmingham PTA, announced the new officers, the association's proposed by-laws were read by Stephens, chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee. The group will meet on the third Wednesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the school.

Here to spend the Canadian Thanksgiving weekend with the W. M. Scarths, of Sunnyside Drive, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Snelair and Mrs. Maitland Hunter, of Stratford, Ont.

Mrs. Scarth's son, Maj. Robert K. Cunningham, is now stationed in Taegu, Korea, where he is a helicopter pilot. While he is overseas, his wife and two children are making their home in Lockhart, Texas.

The Riverside Dance club, whose membership stands at an all-time high of 90 couples, will hold its "Autumn Roundup" at the Birmingham Country club on Oct. 23. Featuring Fred Paxton's orchestra, the affair will honor the club's newcomers to the club.

Among new dance club members from West Beverly are the George Adams, Walter Ahlers, Stewart Bartons, Lewis Bernhardt, Harmon Cole, Ralph Detwiler, Robert Durward, Thomas Husted, Albert Krays, James Lawless, Fred Niemi, and Clayton Setters and John Varley.

A new resident at 18450 Riverside drive, is Mrs. Ethel L. Weldon, who moved from Detroit in June. She has one daughter, Mrs. John Amorosiano, married in June, who, with her husband, is residing temporarily at the Riverside drive address. She has a very little opportunity to get acquainted with her neighbors since her arrival in West Beverly, as she spends her summers at her farm near Emmett.

Mrs. Weldon is owner and operator of Weldon Memorial hospital, in Detroit.

WFG OFFICERS

Officers of the West Beverly branch of the Woman's Farm and Garden association met last Thursday in the home of their president, Mrs. James Leach, West 14-Mile road, to discuss their current project, a gift of 1,800 bulbs to Beverly school.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Henry Walsh, Mrs. Eugene Jones, Mrs. Alvin Knorr, Mrs. Ethel Thur, F. DeRosier, Mrs. Eugene Seitz and Mrs. John Maddox.

Visiting the H. G. Deckers' home Tuesday night, were Mrs. F. H. Figg, of Harrison, N.Y., and his brother, H. E. Decker, of Cleveland. To greet the
