Hayride Scheduled For Birthday is Rained Out

"Happy Birthday" really rang out at 3877 West Lincoln drive when 21 of Janie Struther's friends joined together to help her celebrate her 11th birthday, Friday evening, Oct. 15. A hot dog roast and hayride had been planned for the evening but due to the heavy "dew," the hayride was called off for more suitable weather.

The hot dog roast went according to schedule, though, and the girls huddled up in the garage (which was no bad deal since there were games and dancing to hi-fi).

Those who joined in the fun were Pat Copeland, Susan Bird, Mary Benson, Mary Ann Brown, Jana Berno, Lucy Bowen, Judy Helgeson, Sally Cunningham, DeeDee Degener, Dottie Ellis, Mary Gillet, Dale Kosters, Judy Larkins, Judy Lawrence, Estelle Loud, Joyce Kellar, Josie Pauls, Katy Weirick, Barb Sebek, and Ann Graham.

BERKSHIRES WNF GA

This morning board members of the Berkshire's branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association met at the home of Mrs. Otto Grob on Parkstone lane to work out last minute details for their big meeting Friday, Oct. 22.

That day, they are joining the Northwest, Wing Lake and Foxcroft branches at the Birmingham Community House at 1:00 p.m. to hear Mrs. Walter D. Byrd from Royal Oak speak on creative table settings. It promises to be a very interesting meeting and members are invited to bring guests. If anyone wants to thank a ride that day for any other meeting, month ago. McKinney is industrial district manager for Timken Roller Bearing company and Mrs. McKinney recently resigned from four year's service as a motor-aid with the Red Feather agency. For relaxation the McKinneys enjoy golf and bowling at their favorite haunt, Plum Hollow Golf club.

The Paul Droeges have chosen tomorrow night as the night for a bridge-supper at their home on Jackson Park drive. Guests participating in the eating of spaghetti and the making (?) of game bids will be the M.J.W. Campbells, Jr., the Dan R. Frasers, the William F. Browns, the Robert W. Docks and Dr. and Mrs. Rosser L. Mainwaring.

NEWCOMERS

We're very pleased to introduce Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Henrichsen as new Berkshire residents. The Henrichsens moved to 3982 Oakhills drive recently after living 29 years in an apartment in Detroit. Henrichsen is a building contractor and had the fun of building his own home. Getting away from the hustle and bustle of the city is wonderful, says Mrs. Henrichsen, although it's not entirely new to them since they have a home in the mountains of Quebec that they visit during the summer months.

The McKinneys, former Rosedale, moved to the Berkshires a Mrs. Russell D. Hughes, of Chula Vista lane, was among the guests invited to a luncheon given by Mrs. George Olien of Bloomfield on Friday night to watch the Detroit-Lions game at Briggs stadium. Lions trounce the Baltimore Colts 17-10 in their game at Briggs stadium. The game was a rain-soaked affair with hot dogs and piping hot coffee served to the fans. Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
