Removal of snow from privately operated off-street parking lots will not be undertaken by the city, it has been decided by city commissioners. They advised National Garages, which operates three lots here, to obtain assistance from a private concern. The parking company had asked that the city perform the task and send a bill for the expenses.

Dr. Becker, Hat Shop Trade Locations

Dr. Norman R. Becker, optometrist, announced this week that he has moved his office into larger quarters at 135 E. Maple. The new location is next door to his former office and is in the former location of the Keller Hat Shop. The hat shop has moved into the space formerly occupied by Dr. Becker at 129 E. Maple. Dr. Becker has been at his former location for eight years and the Keller Hat Shop operated in their former location for 14 years. Becker said that his new location will afford his staff three times their former floor space.
