WHAT THE Birmingham League of Women Voters has to do with the United Nations is shown here in chart form, as prepared by Mrs. J. H. Barr who has daughter Maggie's critical eye to help her check details. The chart was prepared as a part of the League's program for the observance of United Nations week. The group also sponsored the showing of a film, "Defense of Peace." (Eccentric Photo)

BSA District One Meeting Stated For October 28

Approximately 1,000 parents and leaders of Boy Scouts will gather one week from tonight, October 28, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Berkley high school for the annual meeting of District One.

There, under the leadership of Edward E. Wilson, district chairman, they will learn of the progress of scouting in the populous district which extends from Baseline to Bloomfield Hills and Inkster road to Dequindre.

District One is the largest of all districts in the Detroit Area Council, and is believed to have the largest boy and adult membership of any scout district in the world.

Speaker for the occasion will be Dr. Charles E. Irvin, professor of communication skills, Michigan State College. Dr. Irvin is widely known through the state and nation for his ability to practice what he teaches: The art of fascinating an audience.

ACCORDING TO Harlow Willis, program chairman, "Anyone who has once heard Dr. Irvin speak, will gladly drive fifty miles to hear him again, regardless of the topic."

Will H. Connelly, district public relations chairman, will deliver the annual report. Unit leaders will be recognized in special ceremonies. Training awards will be given and two trophies are to be awarded for service to scouting in the field of organization and extension.

Climax of the meeting will be the awarding of the Silver Bells to two Scouters for outstanding achievements and contributions to Scouting. Their names are closely-guarded secrets until the moment of presentation.
