MRS. JOHN A. DENOMY

Repeat Wedding Vows In Catholic Ceremony

At a nuptial mass in Holy Name church on Saturday, Katherine Edna Rossman became the bride of John A. Denomy. The Rev. Eugene Paddock performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Denomy, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Rossman of Larchlea drive. John's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denomy of St. Clair.

Katherine chose a waltz length gown of nylon lace over satin with a fitted bodice and a long sleeved bolero. Her fingertip veil was held by a bonnet rim studded with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

ELIZABETH Rossman, her sister's only attendant, wore larkspur blue and carried a bouquet of demure pink roses and ivy.

Best man was the groom's brother, Donald Denomy. Ushers were Joseph Denomy, Jr. and Richard Rourke.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rossman wore slate blue taffeta with a winter white hat and a corsage of hibiscus roses. Mrs. Denomy wore a violet crepe ensemble with pink hat and her corsage was of pink roses.

Following a wedding breakfast for members of the two families, the new Mrs. Denomy changed to a traveling suit of navy blue with beige accessories and wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. When they return from their honeymoon they will make their home in Port Huron.

Millers Come from Rio

It's been a year since the Charles H. Millers came back from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, but they've brought a few interesting pieces to their new home here that will remind them of their two-year South American stay.

The Millers moved in August to 1252 Fairfax, after living in Cleveland in the interim while their house was completed.

In it, Mrs. Miller has one wood on chest of a wood the Latins think far superior to mahogany, that she used to "fill the void" of her huge dining room in Rio. "Dining rooms there are large, because the families do most of their living there, and the living rooms are small," she says.

MOMS Double Visits To Dearborn Vets; Seek Defense Plan

Birmingham Mothers of Men in Service are expanding their activities at the Dearborn Veteran hospital according to Mrs. Howard Estes, MOMS president.

"We have doubled the number of men on our weekly visit list," she said. "These boys we have found look forward to our visits which, although we are strangers, does give them a touch of home. We provide small, inexpensive gifts for them as well as giving them a chance to talk about things not military, and not connected with illness."

She said, too, that the club had gone on record as wanting an adequate civil defense program for Birmingham.

"We are writing to the mayor, asking that he replace the recently resigned director and deputy director of civil defense," Mrs. Estes stated.

MILLER IS THE DETROIT district manager of the hydraulics division of Thompson Products, Inc., a Cleveland firm. They had lived 20 years in Cleveland, and went to Brazil with the White Motor company, maker of trucks and buses. He was manager of the entire South American sector and travelled a great deal on that continent.

Giving an international twang to their list of memberships is their affiliation with the Gavena Golf and Country club in Rio de Janeiro. They belong to the Al Koran Shrine of Ohio and Miller to the society of Automotive Engineers.
