

W. D. Buicks Mark Golden Anniversary at Reception

A reception Sunday marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buick. Gold and bronze fuji mums and gold colored candles centered the table where Mrs. Whiting Raymond, Mrs. Buick's sister-in-law, Mrs. Franklin C. Robinson, a Grosse Pointe whose mother was a close friend of Mrs. Buick, and Mrs. Charles B. Van Dusen, Mr. Buick's sister from Detroit, were asked to pour.

The Buicks, who said their wedding vows at home in Detroit 50 years ago and who moved to their present home on Abbey place in Birmingham in 1931, received about 150 guests from the Detroit area and other areas. Plans for the event were aided by their daughter, Mary, who lives at home with them.

Entertains Here
 William Hutton and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Julian Hutton, of Grand Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Maentz, Mrs. Milton Tibbetts who is here from Whittier, Calif., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy E. Stringer on Glenhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Will of London, Canada who are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Ada Dunlap, missionary on furlough from Assuit, Egypt, and Mrs. Jeannette Gass, of Pierce street, had luncheon with Lucy Purdy of Frank street Monday. Mrs. George Fox and Son, Edward S. McCombe, were among guests.

Friendly Unit Seeks Funds

The Friendly League's efforts to raise funds for needy families are being channeled towards a dessert, bribe and lake sale on October 29. The event, for which Mrs. Otto P. Dallavo, of Royal Oak is chairman, will be the American Legion, Rochester and 12 Mile in Royal Oak.

Mrs. R. C. Nordstrom, of Birmingham has dessert planning and Mrs. F. D. Saylor of Bloomfield Hills has table accessories for the committee share. The bake sale, which starts at 1 p.m., is one of the fund-raising projects which the league plans yearly.

Sophomore PTA Hears Four Speakers
 The Sophomore grade level meeting of the Birmingham High school PTA was held October 19 at the high school, when principal speakers were Mrs. E. E. Darling, Donald Grathe, Charles Thumser, and Ross Wagner, principal. William Keel, president, led the meeting.

The junior class section will hold its grade level meeting Oct. 26 at the school.

GAL FRIDAY

Birmingham, Mich.

Dear Gal:

You can be happy here!

We know you're a good accurate typist and have a workable knowledge of shorthand. Of course you have a pleasant voice and personality! BUT—do you have a sense of humor too?

It would be nice if you knew simple bookkeeping or had some real estate, mortgage loan or legal experience—but you can talk us out of this.

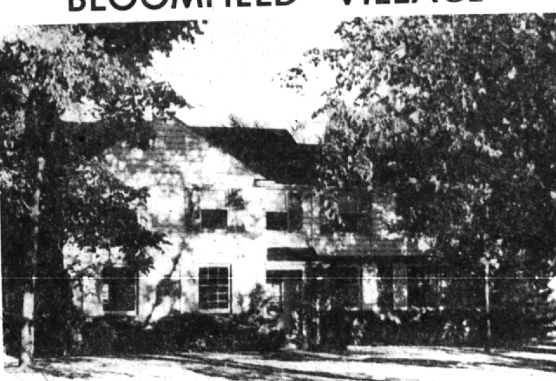

The pay is good—and it will be a lot better if you turn out to be a happy, competent little ray of sunshine with a good deal of initiative.

But into every life a little rain must fall. The hours are (let's face it) not so good. 40 hours a week but all day Saturday for the present. And you will need a car for personal transportation.

Dial Midwest 6-2700 to arrange an appointment—do it NOW!
