JANE STAGG LI 9-3856

Art Bradley arranged a birthday party for his wife last Saturday night and successfully surprised her. The Richard Ewings, Hans Olsons and James Cummings met at the home of the V. L. Stocks before going to the Bradley home on Bamlet, where they announced their arrival by singing "Happy Birthday". Charades and tape recordings made as the group sang, occupied the guests after they had presented their hostess with gifts.

The first of a series of monthly square dances put on by the elementary PTA of the Jane Adams school was held Saturday night. Every month a dance will be held on the third Saturday.

John Brennan, president of the Royal Oak Beverly Hills Improvement association says that plans are under way for the annual Halloween party for the children in the subdivision.

G. S. UNIFORM EXCHANGE

Mrs. John Adams of Hampton is selling and exchanging used girl scout equipment and uniforms this year. Anyone wishing to dispose of Girl Scout articles or to acquire equipment is invited to contact Mrs. Adams.

The Earl Bohlmans of Hampton had a full house last weekend when his sisters, Mrs. Joe Bingham of Litchfield, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Krager of Harvel, Ill., were their guests from Friday until Monday.

The Robert Gockels of Olivia avenue entertained their neighbors, the Earl Potters, the J. J. McTernans of Bamlet road and the Jack Loyatts of Bloomfield Hills at a bridge party in their home Friday evening.

LITTLE NEWCOMERS

Four-year-old Daniel McCall is almost as delighted as his parents now that his sister, Kathleen Mary, who was born Sept. 21 at Cottage hospital, Grosse Pointe, is at home. The McCall's live on Olivia avenue.

Dale Ploch who is seven years old considered his brother, Bradley Dean, a very special present for his seventh birthday. Mrs. Raymond Ploch returned from Holy Cross hospital last Saturday with her baby. Sunday the grandparents and other members of the family came to the Ploch home on Robinwood to honor Dale on his seventh birthday. The baby Bradley weighed nine pounds and one ounce at birth in Oct. 1.

Pontiac Symphony Lists Local Girl In Soloist Spot

A Birmingham musician, Carol Rosenberger, pianist, is listed among the soloists for the coming season of the Pontiac Symphony orchestra according to Celia Merrill Turner, associate conductress. The season will get underway Oct. 27 at 8:30 p.m. in Pontiac's Lincoln junior high school, with Francesco Di Blasi of Detroit, as conductor. The orchestra is a far-reaching community achievement drawing musicians from Bloomfield Hills, Orchard Lake and other area communities. Seasoned professionals are playing side-by-side with gifted high school age musicians.

MRS. TURNER, whose home is in Bloomfield Hills, not only shares conductor duties with Di Blasi, but is also listed in the first violin section.

The opening concert will feature Michela Miscakoff, one of the world's great masters of the violin. He will include in his program Mendelssohn's violin concerto in E minor, with an orchestral accompaniment.

Future concerts will feature

At 1:45 Mrs. J. Moore, Mrs. Karl Shriver and Mrs. J. D. Oswald will welcome the mothers of Miss Salton's afternoon kindergarten.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Grant Maudlin and Mrs. Carl Griffin met with Miss Smith's afternoon kindergarten mothers.

Last week Wednesday Mrs. William Anderson and Mrs. John Schindler greeted the mothers of Mrs. Bennett's second grade.

Earlier in the month, mothers of Mr. Kimball's sixth grade met with roommothers, Mrs. B. Southwell and Mrs. L. Carrier.

Square Dancing Called At Adams

Square dancing at the first such event of the Adams PTA season will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the school gym tomorrow evening. Chairmen for the dance are the O'Neil Dillons, who will be aided by the Carlotta B. Johnsons and the William Lightbodies.

The Brennans will call squares for the instruction period first and the "old hands" dances at nine. Public is invited.

Engineers' Wives Plan Benefit Bridge

The Society of Engineers' Wives sponsored a benefit bridge luncheon in the Rackham Memorial building Tuesday to raise funds for deserving Junior and Senior college Engineering students.

Those who attended from the area are Mrs. Howard Seelye, J. H. Hunt, T. C. Hanson, S. L. Ferguson, Roy Matten and W. R. Williams.

Purdue Alums Slate Dance And Dinner

Plans for a Purdue Alumni Dinner dance were completed at a meeting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Caldwell on Tuckahoe road, Bloomfield Village.

The dance will be Nov. 6 at Lake Pointe Country club, and the club has announced that any alumni who are interested in making reservations should call William Daeschner of Berwyn Road by November 3.

Music will be furnished by Earl Perkins for the event being planned by Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell and their committee. Aiding them are Daeschner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pardoner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Adam, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brewer, all of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Tarpon, of Dearborn, and Mr. and Mrs. K. Kimmel of Grosse Pointe.

The dance will be the first social event of the season for the alumni group.
