Miss Skinner Wins Town Hall Audience

BY RUTH ANNE SILBAR

At Birmingham Town Hall's first presentation Friday morning, the 1,450 members of the audience were so engrossed in Cornelia Otis Skinner's performance...

It was an auspicious beginning for Town Hall series. An enthusiastic, responsive crowd welcomed the full capacity of the Birmingham theater...

"Mansion on the Hudson," Miss Skinner's major presentation, told the story of a house and the people who lived in it.

IN THE LAST SCENE, set in 1934, the mansion had become a gambling establishment and road house...

Miss Skinner's portrayal of the main character in each scene was excellent and she peopled the stage with imaginary and unseen supporting actors.
