Due to special bulk purchase, rarest CASHMERE... aristocrat among fine fabrics... is yours for this low, low price. The tailoring is in the traditional fine Hart Schaffner & Marx manner.
It takes Hart Schaffner & Marx's many years of quality tailoring experience to cut, mold and stitch such rich softness into a handsome, perfect-fitting—but practical—garment like the new season's model shown here. Stitched edges, genuine horn buttons. Patch pockets have inlaid flaps. Satin lined. Single or double breasted, in natural tan, navy or brown.

DID YOU KNOW?

• Best tailoring is limited only from the soft fibers underlain by the customer's gentle hand in Central Asia.
• That it takes about a year's yield
from the sheep to make one coat.
• That the fibers are picked or combed
out by hand—never spun.
• That it takes over a year for the weaver to reach the country.
• That Hart Schaffner & Marx offers the advantage of service at a single price.

WABEEK BUILDING BIRMINGHAM SAGINAW AT LAWRENCE PONTIAC

IT WAS SO much fun that the Oakland Hills country club members have decided to make their pre-Halloween costume party an annual affair. The party, held last week, brought out a colorful gathering in every conceivable type of costume, even to a western couple complete with a toy horse. Among the prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Connell, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lynch, all of Birmingham.

"Country Carnival" Theme of Lathrup Woman's Club Party

Lathrup Woman's club has scheduled their annual charity party for November 6 at the House in the Woods. The theme this year will be a "country carnival."

Members and their husbands will enjoy dinner followed by various games and booths, plus the added attraction of a putting green which should attract a good many of the party goers.

Highlight of the evening will be a dancing exhibition by two instructors from Arthur Murray's new Birmingham studio. Inasmuch as this is the one big charity project of the year many unusual features are being planned.

On Friday, November 5 at 2 p.m., the Women's Association of the Community church will be hostess to the Women's Association of the United Church Women of Birmingham.

Guest speaker will be Judge Arthur E. Moore of Pontiac. Entertainment will include a duet by

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Clare Messenger of San Diego was hostess last week with a bridge and luncheon party. Her guests filling tables were Mrs. Frederick Byington, Mrs. Russell Gannon, Mrs. Robert Steger, Mrs. Harold Becker, Mrs. Roy Mattern, Mrs. William Arvenson, Mrs. Vincent Zattel, Mrs. Vern Bennett, Mrs. Joseph Andrews, Mrs. Fred Gentsch, Mrs. Paul Nash and Mrs. Robert Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pederson and daughter Linda of Bungalow were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Frano in Wharton, Ill. Mrs. Elmer Shaver, Mrs. Harry Dale and Mrs. Joseph Andrews were among the guests at Birmingham Town Hall on Friday. Following the program, Mrs. Dayse Spencer of Birmingham entertained Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Dale and Mrs. Andrews and several other guests at her home for lunch.

UF DRIVE WORKERS

The United Foundation Torch Drive combined with the Red Cross is under way in Lathrup with Mrs. Charles K. Lyle as chairman. Among her co-workers are Mr. T. G. Tate, Mrs. William J. Simpson, Mrs. Carl Lentz, Mrs. John J. Paulus and Mrs. Jack Hagopian. A great part of the donations contributed will stay in our own vicinity for the needs of the area.

Working in the Community church kitchen Thursday were Mrs. L. R. Kappeler, Mrs. Harold Nash, Mrs. Robert Gordon, Mrs. John Roser, Mrs. William Arvenson, Mrs. Harry Dale and Mrs. Claude Porter. This group of ladies spent the day making candies for the TV's booth for the Holiday Fair which will be an all day event on December 4 with a full course dinner served in the evening.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Lathrup school will be the scene of the annual Halloween party given by the Townsfolk Association for Lathrup children on Friday, October 29. The parade starts at 7 p.m. for lower grades, Kindergarten through fifth grade. A party for upper grades, sixth and seventh, begins at 9 p.m. Refreshments, favors and entertainment are planned for all.

ANCIENT MARINERS

A Halloween costume is planned for members of the Ancient Mariners of the Congregational Community church, who will hold their October meeting tonight, Oct. 28, at the church in Fellowship Hall at 8 p.m.

Present Day Club Begins 31st Year

Birmingham's Present Day club is opening its 31st season with Mrs. Joseph Blasius, president; Mrs. David Bleakley, vice president; Mrs. James Pryce, secretary and Mrs. Harriett Parkyn, treasurer. The meeting is scheduled for Nov. 2 at the home of Mrs. S. Forman Wilson, 1439 Bird. Mrs. Horace Barrett will have charge of the program.

The first fall activity was a recent card party held at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith. She was assisted by social service committee-women Elma Kidd, Helen Upplinger and Ethel Gibson.

PTA Open House

Birmingham high PTA is scheduled for 8 p.m., Tuesday, November 9, in the form of an open house. A brief session will be held in the gym, then parents will go to the respective home rooms for a schedule of the evening's program to follow.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—the all society editor about them.
