Race Enlivens Torch Fund Campaign in West Beverly

An element of fun has been injected into West Beverly's Torch Fund campaign, since members of the western section team challenged all comers to a race last week. They have reason to be confident.

Three team members, Mrs. Richard Pope, Mrs. Ernest George, and Mrs. Thomas Husted, were out knocking on doors the day the drive opened, and one member, Mrs. Donald Kalmbach, had completed canvassing her neighborhood two days after opening day.

The other two teams, however, are close behind. An "early bird" on the eastern team was Mrs. Clifford Hollowell, who had made all her contacts by the end of the drive's second day.

Mrs. Donald R. Wilson and her son, Donald R. II, left two weeks ago for their home in Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Wilson had been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson, of Riverside drive, since early summer, and young Donald was born here on August 17.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
 Seven guests to represent each of her seven years, were on hand Oct. 20, to help Sally Hodgson celebrate her birthday. They were entertained at a dinner party in Sally's Bedford road home.

TEA AND EXHIBIT
 A tea and exhibit of the West Beverly sewing club's achievements for the past year, was held last Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ernest George, last year's president. More than 30 women who were active with the club last year, attended the affair. Mrs. A. H. Hilverkus, of Birmingham, furnished background music on the Hammond organ, and Mrs. Alvin Knorr, the club's first president, presided at the tea table.

On display, all neatly packaged and tagged for delivery to the Birmingham ingathering, were 212 articles, including skirts, blouses, petticoats, pinafores, jumpers, flannel coverlets, baby gowns and diapers.

Back from a week's business trip to Asheville, N.C., are Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, of Devonshire road. The Thomas L. Pritchett's new home at 3253 1/2 Manchester road, has been completed, and the family moved into it last week. The Pritchetts have two children, Inglis, 8, and Tommy, 12. Native Virginians, they came here by way of Jacksonville, Fla., and Birmingham, where they lived for two years on Bates street. He is affiliated with the Chevrolet motor division of General Motors.

DANCE CLUB MEETS
 A grand march for new members served to introduce Riverside dance club newcomers at the club's first fall dance, held last Saturday night at the Birmingham country club. Greeting members at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Eusement, dance club heads, and the Jack Harrings, Alan Brundage, Norris Hosts, and Don Bowers, board members.

The West Beverly Hills hostess club met Oct. 19 in the home of Mrs. Arthur Zebede, of Riverside drive. At the meeting, Mrs. John Powers, president, appointed Mrs. Stewart Barton second vice president, and Mrs. William Black hospitality chairman. The club's proposed constitution and by-laws, as presented by co-chairmen Mrs. Charles Vogel and Mrs. Bradley Stephenson, were approved.

On Oct. 11, Mrs. Arthur Zebede was hostess at a cocktail and luncheon party, honoring Mrs. Elmer Neeriemer, of Beaconsfield road, who moved Oct. 15 to Arizona. Attending the party were 30 members of last year's West Beverly bowling league.

Before she moved, Mrs. Neeriemer resigned her position as president of the league. Mrs. Alex Chek, away, of Warwick road, is the group's new president.

Bill Zebede continues to collect honors at Western Military academy, at Altou, Ill. On the honor roll, he is also this year's rifle team captain and academic editor of "Recall," the school's yearbook.

Visit Seeing Eyes
 Visiting the Seeing Eye Foundation shortly before its Oct. 28 closing to public inspection for the winter, Girl Scouts of Troop 490, Holy Name school, donated their dues to the foundation's building fund during their visit last week.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, has been completed, and the family moved into it last week. The Pritch-

AUTOGRAPHED PUMPKINS are something special and two happy Birmingham girls will have them for this Halloween. The pumpkins were "signed" early last summer by E. H. Peterson of Ashley, who grew them especially for his granddaughter Susan Peterson and her close friend, Linda Gail Isadore. As the pumpkins grew, the cut-in letters expanded with them, until today the two names stand out in letters about three inches high. Susan and Linda are planning to carve faces into their pumpkins, but are going to be careful not to damage any of the letters. (Eccentric Photo)
