SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS

SUNDAY, OCT. 31

First Methodist
Coming from Watertown, S. D., the Rev. Allen Wittrup will be heard at both morning worship services.

First Baptist
Again taking his text from the Ten Commandments, the Rev. Emil Kents will preach on "The Safeguard of Parenthood," taking for his text, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother."

Unity Center
Speaking in the Unity Reading room, Birmingham theater building, Frank Glabach will have as his topic "The Path of Worry."

Congregational
The Rev. Robert D. Dewey will speak on "The Job Is Yours" at the 11 a.m. services.

Christian Science
How God's infinite love for men redeems man from sin by destroying sin and revealing man's divine, sinless nature, will be explained in the sermon, "Everlasting Punishment." The text is from Psalms 100:7, "Let Israel hope in the Lord for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plentiful redemption."

United Brethren
"The Christian Interpretation of Affliction" will be the sermon topic when the Rev. Willis Bishop preaches his morning service. He has selected "The True Light" for the topic of his evening sermon.

First Presbyterian
The Rev. W. Glen Harris, Ph.D., has elected to speak on "Learn by Trusting God" at both the 9:45 and 11 a.m. services. He will stress the many processes of learning, with his text from Luke 11, "And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

Thimbles, Needles Retire as Bazaar Date Draws Near

Thimbles and needles owned by the ladies of the First Methodist church are well-worn as the Nov. 11 bazaar date draws near. Miles of thread have been worked into items and seams as the women worked throughout the year on handmade articles for general of the booth.

Mrs. Richard Sneed, general chairman, said the affair would open at 9 a.m., with an assortment of homemade sweet rolls on hand for that "second breakfast." The said the hand sewn items would be featured mainly at the gift booth. The various church groups have met during the summer for special sewing sessions. Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. L. J. Fischer and Mrs. Victor Gullette have been in charge.

ESPECIALLY for the children this holiday season, crocheted, table cloths, doll clothes, stuffed animals and hand puppets. The Christmas decoration booth is headed by a twin-sister team, Mrs. J. T. Wilson and Mrs. Edward Volkman. Agittier, with sequins, the booth will feature felt door hangings, centerpieces and stockings. A popular item is the felt Christmas tree skirt, neatly trimmed to spread under the tree and capture falling needles.

London Under Fire Memories Are Topic

On Monday, Nov. 1, at 8 p.m. the Women's Fellowship will meet at the church. After the business meeting, the Rev. Robert D. Dewey will speak on "Congregationalism—Cockney Style." His talk will be accompanied by slides.

While a divinity student at Yale, Mr. Dewey was sent to London, England, by the Congregational Christian service committee for a year's work with a church group in a bombed-out section of London. His talk will reflect his experiences with that group. Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. A. D. Stiles, assisted by Mesdames Donald R. Olson, Lon King, G. H. Ojala and George E. Merriam.

Election vs Dinner

Members of the Congregational church will be busy getting from the voting polls to the church on Tuesday, Nov. 2, for a 6:30 p.m. all-church supper and congregational meeting. Mrs. William Busch is receiving reservations for the dinner which will be served by Circle II.

Novelty Items Highlight Bazaar

Nov. 4 has been selected as the date of the annual fall bazaar sponsored by the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church. The affair will be held in the social hall from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., according to Mrs. Robert F. Watt, association president.

Luncheon and dinner will be served by ticket only, with bazaar chairman handling sales. Novelty numbers for "the woman who has everything—including an incidental fly and a mouse now and then"—includes sequined mouse traps and flower-bedecked flyswatters with a natty gold braided trim. Sequin-trimmed work gloves are available for the lady who appreciates a touch of the esthetic as she tends to her garden. Booklets will feature such items as family dressed dolls, soft stuffed animals, infants wear and knitted articles. Jewelry, fancy and workaday aprons, pillows, place mats and linen items will occupy a good share of the space.

THERE will be bridge tables and score pads, candy and baked goods, Christmas tree decorations, kissing rings and mistletoe bells, snowball candles and hurricane lamps for the Christmas table. Napkins, place cards and Wedgewood memorial plates will be a mong the other myriad of items offered. The bazaar is under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborne and Mrs. A. S. McCall. Mrs. Ralph H. School and Mrs. Boyce L. Beers are treasurer and assistant treasurer. Decorations are the department of Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mrs. Charles Kinison, Mrs. Harvey Bushnell, Mrs. Dale Miller, Mrs. Ernest Seaholm and Mrs. Seth Slavson. Publicity has been handled by Mrs. Donald J. Wallace and Mrs. Glenn Berry.

'Church' Is Topic Of Women's Group

The Rev. Theodore Wuggazer, Jr., will present the program at the Thursday, Nov. 4 meeting of the Women's Society of Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Beginning at 8 p.m. in the church lounge, he will talk on "Work of the Lutheran Church" and show a film, "This Is Your Family."

After group discussion and a business meeting, refreshments will be served by Mrs. Karl Schuster, Mrs. Harold Helgeson, Miss Odolia Cosental, Mrs. Stewart Schultz and Mrs. E. Sundstrom. Sectional chairmen include Mrs. Dwight Ireland, Mrs. Frederic Sewin, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mrs. F. J. Barney, Mrs. Eugene Hess, Mrs. Milton Mallender, Mrs. Paul Penfield, Mrs. C. K. Dean, Mrs. Robert McKeecher.

Will Address Annual WCD Gathering

Birmingham's United Church Women are again planning the observance of this year's program on Nov. 5, will be held at Community church, Congregational, 27800 Southfield road at 2 p.m.

Judge Arthur E. Moore, Oakland county probate court, has been asked to speak on "Children in Oakland County."

He will discuss children, their problems, their responsibility to society, and society's responsibility to them. Judge Moore, through his court work and association with the county children's home has a wealth of material from which to select his facts.

Planned for the first Friday in November, World Community Day represents a united effort by church women all over the country to provide help for unfortunate.

LAYETTES, bedding and children's clothing will be turned in at the meeting for shipment overseas through Church World Service.

In addition to material gifts, the women will make special offerings for relief purposes.

A part of the money will go to CWS to finance the sending of government surplus foodstuffs overseas.

Another share will go to finance the humanitarian work of Margaret Jabour, chief resettlement officer with the World Council of Churches in Geneva, Switzerland. It is her office which makes arrangements for refugees to enter this country under the new refugee act.

Spooks Will Frolic As Mariners Meet

The Ancient Mariners of Community church, Congregational, will meet on Thursday, Oct. 28, 8 p.m. for a Halloween party.

The feature of the evening will be ten pantomime skits. A smorgasbord lunch will be served at 10 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Phil J. Frigge are in charge.

Church News Deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursdays.

R.S. Ball-o-matic WATER SOFTENER

HERE'S GOOD NEWS! We can rent an R.S. Water Softener at a cost that's so low we'll be money ahead when our savings on soap and other things are considered.

THAT'S RIGHT! And when we're ready to buy a new R.S. Ball-O-Matic we'll get credit for a generous portion of the rent we've paid. IT'S THE BEST DEAL WE CAN GET!

They're both right. The Reynolds Rental Plan is really economical! You rent an R.S. Ball-O-Matic 30,000 Grain Capacity Water Softener for only $1.25 per month. You control it and you maintain it as often as you want. It's yours to use just as if you owned it.

It will only cost you 15¢ a day in extreme cases a few extra months to have all the soft water you need. All the water in your home will be zero salt, and can be used abundantly.

Then, when you're ready to buy a water softener, you own an R.S. Ball-O-Matic for you can keep the rental credit.

You can't afford to be without soft water!
