

Players Have Hit As Season Opens

By ALICE E. MORGAN
 "Season in the Sun", staged last Friday and Saturday evenings by the Village Players, set a high goal for succeeding productions of the 1954-55 season. Duplicate shows will be given this weekend. Ideally cast, the hilarious comedy moved rapidly and smoothly throughout the entire two-hour program.

From the two youngsters, Judd Dweilley and Kristin Jaynes through to such well-known Players stage personalities as Norrie Scott, the 15 persons on stage turned in excellent performances.

Seven-Year-Olds Celebrate Birthdays in Festive Fashion

Happy Birthday Linda Taggart! Linda celebrated her seventh birthday at a luncheon party Saturday afternoon in her home on Auburn drive. Kitty Bela, Gay Marie Kelly, Judy and Mary Steere, Mary Ann Sudd, Mary Ann Murphy, Linda Drake, Barbara Post, Marjola Schutte and Penny Cassle, all of Linda's neighborhood playmates, were invited to share with her the exciting games and the fun that goes with a party.

Her older sister, Pat, and her brother Danny were also on hand, as well as her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Furey and her great-grandmother, Mrs. Frankfield and a great-cousin, Pat Frankfield of Detroit. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Taggart.

Birthday wishes are also extended to seven-year-old Robbie Capinola. On Saturday, his friends, Tommie Shannon, Dick Osterling, Jammie Cassle, Jammie Brewer, Douglas Pearl were invited to a theatre party. The boys saw "Dragons" after feasting on a big cake and ice cream. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Capinola.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Dennis Currier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Currier was host to a few of his friends Friday evening at a Halloween dance in his home on Huckingham, it was a masquerade and the boys and girls had quite a time guessing the identity of one another before they unmasked.
