Berkshire Families to Attend Bloomfield Village PTA Fair

Many area residents are working on the annual Bloomfield Village PTA Fair, the only fund-raising project of the year, which will be held Friday night, Oct. 29 from 5-9 p.m. at Bloomfield Village school.

Each grade has been designated and the first will sponsor the musician, the sale of balloons and the pocket lady while the second will handle the movie sale of soft drinks and the puppet show put on by the A.I.W.U.

The third and fourth grades are joining in the preparation and sale of food while the combination third-fourth grade will handle door prizes and cake walk.

The fifth grade is sponsoring the village song which will be stocked with handmade articles, comic books, puzzles and other items.

The sixth grade will be in charge of the bowling gallery and games for older children.

Experts Tell Teenage Aids

What Southfield township offers its teenagers in education, recreation and after-school work opportunities will be discussed in panel at the Oakland Area Council of Parent-Teacher associations Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The meetings in the art room of Southfield high school will feature a panel of James Van Leuven, senior probation officer to the Oakland County Juvenile court; Phillip LaVigne, township chief of police; Robert Hall, assistant high school principal and director of recreation in the township schools; Mrs. Edith Blake, attendance officer of Southfield school district; and Sue Herrick and Leslie Kuivainen, students in Southfield High school.

Golden Wedding Couple Honored At Dinner Party

A 50th wedding anniversary is an occasion that calls for a celebration. That was just the reason for the family dinner party given Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Chambers, 1150 Parjan road, to honor his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Chambers, who are visiting from Indianapolis, Ind.

Other guests present included their daughter, Mrs. Lois C. Valdivia of Indiana and three grandchildren, Bobby, Tommy and Scotty Chambers.

Forest Lake Sees Goblins

Goblins coming in all the doors is the expectation of the committee planning Forest Lake Country club's Halloween party for Saturday night.

The club's buffet dinner and dance will start at 7 p.m., and rivalry among costumed guests will be for prizes for the best costumed couple and the most original costume.

Pumpkins and cornstalks will be decorations according to Stanley M. Brown, chairman. He is being helped by Mrs. Arthur L. Faltz, Jr. Chambers.

HEARING OF THE SCHOOL BUS to be purchased with Seton Guild funds to take them about, these children of St. Vincent Sarah Fisher school at 12 Mile and Inks, agree it would save them steps. Two guild members active in planning a fund-raising party for Nov. 1, Mrs. James Brook; of West California, in Lathrup Village, left, and Mrs. Peter Rizzo, of Detroit, talk to Danny, Kathy, Judy and Eddie, left to right. Mrs. Rizzo is chairman and Mrs. Brooks prize chairman for the party at 12:03 p.m. in Labourer Hall at the school.

Newcomers Club Lists Activities

An Oct. 28 luncheon is slated by the Newcomers Golf league, to be held at Red Run country club. Mrs. George Bender and Mrs. Russell Zeller, co-chairmen, said prizes would be awarded to tournament and special events winners at this time.

Mrs. Madeline Burke Bartlett, Thomas Murphy and J. E. Prestien have helped plan the affair.

The afternoon bridge group is extending an invitation to all new Birmingham residents to join them at the Community House on Nov. 4. Dessert and coffee will be served at 12:30 p.m., with the afternoon devoted to cards.

Mrs. Charles Bosworth, chairman, said reservations were not necessary, nor need foursomes be arranged in advance for either bridge or canasta.

Hostesses will be Mesdames W. Ninkhuis, B. Brenton, J. Seabro, G. Meadows and F. Van Sickle. Mrs. R. Stansberry is chairman.

The bowling league announces that with the season opening, there are places for five more players.

Honor Nancy Howe

Among those entertaining for Nancy Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howe, and William Morrison of Toledo, and Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, Jr. On Oct. 23 they honored the future bride and groom at a party in their Quanton Road home. Then, on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Greene were at home to honor Nancy and Bill in their Country Club Drive home.

FIRST BIRTHDAY

There will be birthday cake and everything at the regular monthly meeting of the Berkshires branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association Tuesday, November 2.

The club will be celebrating its first birthday at the Birmingham Community House and the celebration will start at 1:00 p.m. Guest speaker for the meeting will be Clara Disbrow, who will demonstrate fall flower arrangements.

Don't forget tomorrow's meeting at 1 p.m. at the Community House when Mrs. Walter H. Byrd will address the club on table settings.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Barbara Schaechinger, daughter of the John Schaechers on East Greenwich drive, celebrated her birthday in grand style Sunday, October 17. The whole party was built around a circus theme even to the canopy of balloons over the table.

From 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. her guests enjoyed games, balloons and best of all, an Abbott and Costello movie and cartoons which Barbara's daddy ran off for the group.

After the gifts were opened, Barbara presented each one of her guests with a gift as a way of saying thank you to Cynthia Brewer, Carol Beebe, Pamela Whipple, Nancy St. John, Virginia VanDyk, Patsy Kelly, Joanne Zimmerman, a school chum, Kathy, and Sneha Stone.

It was a duo farewell Wednesday, October 20 when Mrs. John B. Burnell, of 7075 Sherwood drive, said goodbye to her mother, Mrs. Emil A. Melms, who left for her home in Lake Worth, Fla.

Accompanying Mrs. Melms were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Krenz, parents of Mrs. Norman J. Ellis, 2245 Lahser road. The Krenzes were returning to their home at Rose-in-the-Hills, Florida.

Mrs. Melms and another daughter, Mrs. Flore Vine, of Detroit, Mrs. Burnell and Mrs. Evelyn Dwyer were guests at the Ellis home for luncheon before the trio took off.

This afternoon Mrs. Russell E. McKinney, 30213 Stellmar drive, is entertaining her bridge club. The

Some things are merely expensive; others are fine...

We have every respect for dollars, and we know that every product must have its price.

Yet it is our observation in the market, over the years, that "some things are merely expensive; others are fine..."

Our whole bent is toward bringing together, for your convenience, those things which are fine! The merely expensive never impresses us.
