

One Boy Among Contest Winners

Winners were announced Friday in the annual Torch Drive Poster Contest conducted in the Birmingham Schools, and the winning posters now are on display in local store windows.

First place in the Birmingham high school division went to Martha Manger, 11th grade, second place to Patricia Talbot, 11th grade and third place to Constance Gordon, 9th grade. Diane Gardner received honorable mention.

In the elementary division, the three top posters were submitted by pupils at Holy Name school, Patricia Werstein and Barbara White, 8th grade were first; Carol Elsakrell, 8th grade, second; and Terry Sempowski, 7th grade, third. Honorable mention went to Judy Young, 8th grade.

JAMES M. HANNON, 1738 Fairview, has been appointed sales manager of the Standard Products company, Cleveland, Ohio, according to firm officials. Hannon has served in the Detroit sales office for seven years, most recently as assistant sales manager.

Voting Closes "Y"

The Birmingham YMCA will hold its annual election, November 2 when the elections are held and the building is being used as a voting place. For this day, the Lincoln Nursery and the Birmingham Toastmasters' Club will receive.

Business Women

The regular November business meeting of the Birmingham Business Women's club will be held on Thursday, Nov. 4, at the Birmingham Community House. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the business meeting will follow.

Panel Member

Stanley J. Gillen, 3019 Chewton Cross, Bloomfield Village, will be a panel member on November 1 when the Detroit Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants holds the final discussion at the Park Shelton hotel, Detroit. Gillen is divisional controller of the steel division of Ford Motor company.

4-Foot Extension

A four-foot boost in the height of commercial parking lot light poles would be possible under an ordinance amendments that comes up for hearing Nov. 15 before the Birmingham city commission. Present maximum is eight feet.
